EDITORIAL WORD

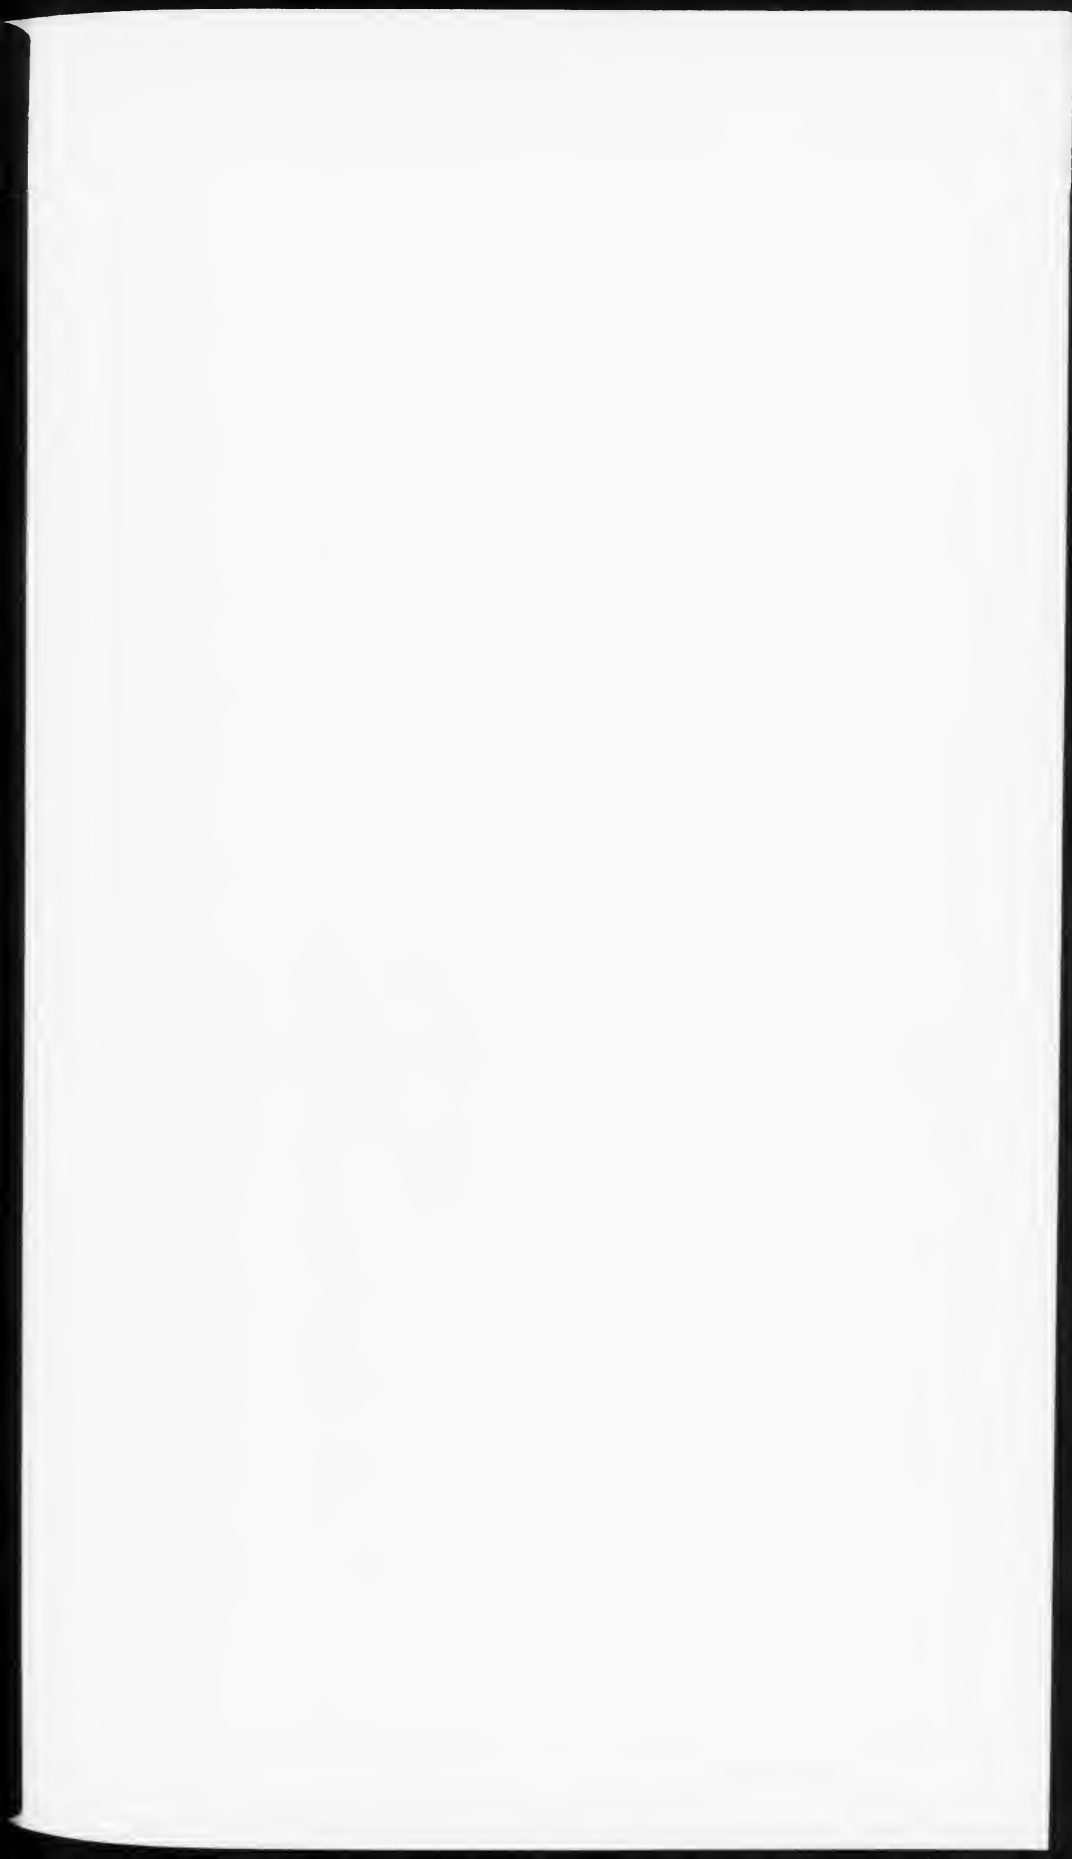

A memoir of Mrs. J. H. Keith, and photographs of Mrs. Keith, Mrs. William E. Quase, and Mrs. James A. Davis, were not furnished.

A few photographs of churches were furnished but not enough to make a good group.

Cents are omitted in financial tables, but counted in cents.

The price of the Annual is 25 cents. Send every copy sent, and remit to the Chattanooga Savings Bank. All postal orders should be sent to me, but no money.

CONFERENCES

The General Conference, our law-making body, which meets every four years, shall be composed of one clerical member for every forty-eight members of each Annual Conference, and an equal number of lay members. Of the lay members elected, one may be a local preacher. The clerical representatives shall be elected by clerical members of the Annual Conference, and the lay representatives by lay members.

The Annual Conference is composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it, and four lay representatives—one of whom may be a local preacher—from each presiding elder's district. The lay members are elected by the laymen of each District Conference. Such members must be twenty-five years of age, and they must have been members of the Church for six years. The Conference Lay Leader is, ex officio, a member of the Annual Conference.

The District Conference shall be composed of all the preachers, traveling and local, of the district, the recording stewards of the same, and of laymen, the number of whom, and manner of appointment, each Annual Conference may decide for itself. In compliance with this provision, the Holston Conference, in session at Abingdon, Va., in 1879, fixed the ratio at one delegate for every eighty laymen, to be elected by the Quarterly Conference of the several pastoral charges embraced in the said district; provided, that no charge shall be entitled to more than eight, nor denied a less number than four, delegates. The District Conference meets annually. The Lay Leader of each charge is, ex officio, a member of the District Conference.

The Quarterly Conference shall be composed of all the traveling and local preachers, including superannuated preachers residing within the circuit or station (whether without or within the limits of the Annual Conference to which they belong), with the exhorters, stewards, trustees who are members of the Church, and class-leaders, of the respective circuits, stations, and missions, together with superintendents of Sunday schools who are members of the Church, secretaries of Church Conferences, presidents of Senior Epworth Leagues, if eligible, and none others.

The Church Conference consists of all the members of a particular charge, or class, with resident members of the Annual Conference. It should meet once a month on stations, once a quarter on circuits.

HISTORICAL FACTS

The first Methodist society was organized in London, England, in 1739, by John Wesley.

John Wesley was born at Epworth, England, June 17, 1703; entered Oxford University in 1721; was ordained deacon in the Church of England in 1729; went to Georgia in 1735; obtained the witness of the Spirit in 1738; and died March 2, 1791.

The first Annual Conference in England was held in 1744.

The first Methodist meeting house in America was erected about 1764 at Sam's Creek, Md. The first itinerant Methodist preachers sent to America were Richard Boardman and Joseph Pilmoor, in 1769.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS.

FIRST DAY.

Wednesday, October 6, 1915.

The Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met in its ninety-second annual session, in our Broad Street Church, Knoxville, Tenn., with Bishop W. B. Murrah in the chair. After singing "O, for a Thousand Tongues to Sing," the Conference was led in prayer by the Bishop, who then read from the third chapter of Phillippians and commented thereon. The following communication from Bishop R. G. Waterhouse was read by Bishop Murrah:

539 Oxford Avenue, Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—I may truly say that earth holds, and has held no body of men dearer to me than you and your predecessors, whom I have known back to 1878. It was in October of that year, while holding its fifty-fifth session in Church Street, Knoxville, that I was admitted to the Conference on probation as an itinerant Methodist preacher. The years following have brought me no greater joy than that of meeting with my brethren in our annual sessions.

It would afford me great joy to be gathered with you at the hour of your reading this communication, but I do not complain. I have had fifty-nine years of unusually good health, and in the thirty-seven years of my connection with the Conference I have never been prevented from meeting with you for lack of physical strength. Why should we not be happy? I am with you in spirit, and you are all likewise with me. We are all in our Father's house, and in his blessed keeping.

One thing, however, I desire of the Lord, and want you to join me in praying for. It is that I may live yet a score or more, of years, that Christ may live in me more perfectly and powerfully. I want a fuller vision of His face, a truer and more worthy conception of the Blessed Trinity, that I may bear a mighty witness to the truth of which Christ spake when he said: "To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth." Brethren, I believe in prayer, and I believe in prayer for the healing of the sick. Please ask for me the gift of the Holy Spirit, to heal my body, to illuminate my mind, to purify my heart, to sanctify, and empower for service my entire being.

I pray that you may have a great session of your Conference, that all your business may be transacted as in the immediate presence of God, that you may receive your appointments to the work of the new year, as from the Lord, and that the new year may be one of great grace and glory in all the churches in Holston, because you shall be among them as God's men of light and leading. With a heart full of love for all, and for each of you, I am,

Devotedly, your brother,

RICHARD G. WATERHOUSE.

October 1, 1915.

The Secretary was instructed to send, by wire, a night letter of response and affectionate greeting to Bishop Waterhouse.

The Conference sang with great fervor, "How Firm a Foundation," and R. N. Price led in prayer. The Secretary of the last Conference called the roll chronologically, and the following persons answered to their names:

 R. P. PURSE,

Commission.

REPORT—The Chattanooga Savings Bank, Treasurer of the Conference, made the following report:

In addition to the reports which will be submitted by the Treasurers of the several accounts and funds, the General Treasurer wishes to make a brief report to the Conference:

The bank has paid to the various accounts:

Interest on balances	$159.70
Interest on investments	155.89
Interest on investments accrued, but not paid	50.00
Donations of commissions on investments	94.23
Exchange waived	55.00
Special clerical service, not including overhead expense and general clerical work	120.00
Total	634.82

This amount has accrued to the benefit of the Conference at a cost up to date of $92.85. This expense includes $37.50 paid for auditing the former teller's books; all postage, stationery and printing used during the Conference year, but does not include the expenses of the bank's representatives to Conference, which are yet undetermined.

The bank made a report every month to each Presiding Elder, showing the amount paid in by each charge on their assessments up to the date of the report. It has made a report every month to every treasurer, showing the exact conditions of their several accounts up to the time of the report. It has made a complete report monthly to the Conference Missionary Secretary showing the amount paid by each charge up to the time of the report on Home and Conference Missions and Foreign Missions. It has made many special reports to individuals, and has made it a rule to answer all correspondence, and receipt for all moneys on the same day received.

The bank requests the Conference, or a committee to authorize the proper distribution of the expense for the year. It also requests a special committee to be appointed to arrange for a contract for the ensuing year. The officials of the bank deeply appreciate the many expressions complimentary to the services rendered by the institution.

CHATTANOOGA SAVINGS BANK,
By T. R. Durham, Asst. Cashier.

The old commission, consisting of F. A. Carter, G. L. Hardwick, W. G. M. Thomas, J. A. Burrow and R. P. Purse, was reappointed to make a new contract for the ensuing year.

AUDITING COMMITTEE—The Auditing Committee made a careful and accurate report of its work in examining treasurer's books, accounts, etc., which excellent report was adopted. See supplement "B."

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, by direction of the last Annual Conference a commission composed of G. L. Hardwick, F. A. Carter, J. A. Burrow, R. P. Purse and W. G. M. Thomas, were appointed a "Commission on Care of Conference Funds," and

Whereas, said commission made a contract with the Chattanooga Savings Bank, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and,

Whereas, the administration of our funds by the Chattanooga Savings Bank has proved most highly satisfactory, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we thank this commission for making this satisfactory contract with the bank.

Resolved, Secondly, That our thanks are due the bank for painstaking and successful conduct of our finances and for the splendid results shown.

Resolved, Thirdly, That our thanks are due the Auding Committee for its splendid work.

Resolved, Fourthly, That we are greatly indebted to Mr. R. P. Purse, who first presented the present plan of handling our finances.

J. W. MOORE.
 J. W. PERRY.
 J. M. CARTER.
 P. L. COBB.

The old Auditing Committee, consisting of G. L. Hardwick, F. A. Carter and J. B. Ward, was reappointed, with authority to adjust all business matters connected with our Conference funds.

REPORT—The treasurer of the Holston Board of Church Extension made report, which was adopted. See supplement "C."

ADDRESSES—Dr. James Cannon, of the Anti-Saloon League work in Virginia, and Dr. D. B. Price, of our General Church Extension Board, addressed the Conference in the interest of the work committed to their hands. Bishop Atkins and George R. Stuart spoke for the Southern Assembly at Junaluska, N. C.

On motion of G. R. Stuart the Conference endorsed the movement to raise an indebtedness of $12,000 in the Anti-Saloon League work in Virginia, and pledged the co-operation of our preachers in Virginia.

ADMITTED—Under a resumption of Question 1, James H. Montgomery, having been licensed to preach by the Licensing Committee at this session of the Conference, and having been recommended for admission by the same committee, and having passed the required examination, was admitted into the traveling connection on trial. On motion his credentials were restored.

The Orphanage Board made the following report, which was adopted:

Last year this Orphanage Board was organized for the purpose of having a stable body with which the Woman's Missionary Society might deal with reference to the relationship of this Conference to the institution. As there are no negotiations pending nor in immediate prospect and as this Board has neither responsibilities to bear nor duties to perform, we would offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Orphanage Board is forthwith dissolved and the treasurer of the Orphanage is instructed to act for the Conference.

Resolved, That the assessment be the same as last year.

J. W. MOORE, Chairman.

R. B. PLATT, Secretary.

After announcements, the Conference adjourned with the benediction by C. T. Carroll.

FIFTH DAY—MEMORIAL SESSION.

Sunday, Oct. 10, 1915.

The Conference met in memorial session at 3 o'clock p. m., with I. P. Martin in the chair, by appointment of Bishop Murrah. The Conference sang, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," after which D. H. Carr led in prayer. I. P. Martin read a Scripture lesson from 1 Thessalonians, fourth chapter. The Conference trio, John C. Orr, A. B. Hunter and Eugene Blake, sang, in sweet tenderness, "Sleep On, Beloved, Sleep and Take Thy Rest."

I. P. Martin made appropriate introductory remarks.

We recommend the appointment of J. W. Browning as Financial Agent of Centenary College.

We ask the confirmation of Bishop R. G. Waterhouse as a trustee of Martha Washington College, the name having been inadvertently omitted from the list submitted yesterday.

J. S. FRENCH, President.

J. R. BROWN, Secretary.

Report No 3.

The following paper was received by our Board.

To the Boards of Trustees of Emory and Henry, Martha Washington, and Sullins Colleges.

Dear Brethren:—At a called meeting of your Boards held on April 2, April 1 and April 8, respectively, you appointed committees to co-operate with one another and with a committee from the Board of Education of the Holston Conference in examining into the practicability of a union of these schools, and requested them to report at the annual meetings of the Boards. These committees were as follows: Emory and Henry—M. H. Honaker, C. C. Weaver, R. G. Waterhouse. Martha Washington—Geo. E. Penn, S. D. Long, I. P. Martin. Sullins—Jos. L. Kelly, H. G. Peters, G. M. Peavler. Board of Education—J. S. French, E. E. Wiley, R. K. Sutherland.

These committees named met at Martha Washington College, Abingdon, Va., on April 20, 1915, and after a full discussion of the legal and other matters involved, passed the following resolution:

“Resolved, That a sub-committee be named to take into consideration all questions relative to the formation of this system, draft a paper containing whatever resolutions and facts ought to be included, and present it to the annual meetings of the three several Boards, after it has been approved by this committee."

Pursuant to that resolution, the sub-committee, consisting of M. H. Honaker, H. G. Peters and J. S. French, met in Bristol on May 5, and drew up a paper, which on May 31, was presented to the full committee in session at Martha Washington College, Abingdon, Va., and adopted as follows:

A. Facts.

(1) The present charter of Emory and Henry College can be amended, those of Martha Washington and Sullins Colleges dissolved, and the property of the last two mentioned transferred to the corporation to be known as "Emory and Henry College" under a charter as follows. (See Supplement. 1.)

(2) The General Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, "cordially approves the plan" and believes that a proper co-ordination of Emory and Henry and Martha Washington would give each of said schools class A classification. (See Supplement. 2.)

(3) Such organizations as the General Education Board make gifts according to the case, and would not, as we understand it, refuse a gift to an institution which itself is free of debt merely and alone on the ground that it is a part of a corporation, another institution of which is in debt. (See Supplement. 3.)

(4) The present indebtedness of any one of the schools remains as against it alone, and not against the new corporation.

(5) While a debt against any one of the institutions incurred after the reorganization is primarily against that particular school, yet if its resources are exhausted without satisfying the debt, the creditor can make the balance out of any other property of the corporation. This is true as regards the Randolph-Macon System. (See Supplement. 4.)

B. Suggestions.

(1) That each group of nine trustees constitute a Local Executive Committee, looking after the interests of the institution it represents in the interim of the Board meetings; provided, that this Committee shall be given authority to elect any number of its members to represent it in this work.

(2) That there be elected every two years a General Executive Committee which shall exercise jurisdiction over the entire system in the interim of the meetings of the Board, this Committee to consist of seven members, two from each group of nine, and the President of the Board of Trustees, who shall be, ex officio, the Chairman of this Committee.

(3) That the President of each school be, ex officio, a member of the Local Executive Committee of that school with which he is connected.

(4) That each institution use whatever surplus money it may have over and above expenses in a manner to be determined by the Board of Trustees upon recommendation by the Local Executive Committee of that institution. (N. B. We do not herein lose sight of the fact that ultimately the corporation is responsible for the debts of each and all the schools.)

(5) That each institution meet whatever deficit may arise in a manner to be determined by the Board of Trustees upon recommendation of the Local Executive Committee of that institution; provided, that the surplus of no one of the other institutions is to be drawn upon for such purpose. (N. B. We do not herein lose sight of the fact that ultimately the corporation is responsible for the debts of each and all the schools).

(6) That all canvasses for funds be undertaken only after recommendation by the Board of Trustees, in accord with its orders, and after submission to and adoption by the Conference Board of Education, or the Executive Committee of said Board of Education.

(7) That tuition fees, board and all other college charges be fixed for each institution by the Board of Trustees in annual session; any departure therefrom upon the part of any representative of any school to be allowed only on consent of the General Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees.

(8) That the General Executive Committee determine the number of and select the canvassers for students upon nomination of the Presidents of the various schools.

(9) That the President, teachers and other officers of each school be elected by the Board of Trustees upon nomination of the Local Executive Committee.

(10) That the salary of each President, teacher and other officer be fixed by the Board of Trustees on recommendation of the Local Executive Committee.

(11) That each school pay the salaries of its own officers, teachers and employees.

(12) That the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be held at such time and place as may be determined by the General Executive Committee, and nine members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of ordinary business; but a less number may adjourn from time to time until a quorum is obtained; and special meetings of the Board may be called by the General Executive Committee, or by twelve members of the Board in a written request to the Chairman of the General Executive Committee, who shall give written notice to each member of the Board at least seven days before the time of such meeting. These notices shall specify the object for which the meeting is called. In case of the death of the Chairman of the General Executive Committee or his inability to act, the Secretary of the General Executive Committee shall call the meeting.

C. Resolutions.

(1) That we recommend a union of Emory and Henry, Martha Washington and Sullins Colleges on the general basis as set forth in this and attached papers, with the understanding that the new Board of Trustees shall work out such additional by-laws and details, or change any herein contained, as it may determine to be best for the interests of the corporation.

(2) That a committee of three, one from each institution, be appointed to take the necessary steps relative to the dissolution of the two corporations known as "The Trustees of Martha Washington College" and "The Trustees of Sullins College," to amend the charter of Emory and Henry College in conformity to the one hereto attached and designated in this paper as "Supplement A," and to proceed as rapidly as possible in all those legal matters necessary to the perfecting of the plan here outlined so soon as the necessary permission of the Holston Conference is obtained.

(3) That each of the three above mentioned schools shall now proceed, through its Board of Trustees, to select nine men to represent it on the proposed new Board of Trustees and be named as Trustees in the amended charter.

(4) That each Board of Trustees shall designate which three are to hold office for two years from date of first annual meeting of the Board of Trustees after issuance of charter, which three for four years, and which three for six years, so as to conform to the provisions of the charter and the requirements of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

(5) That a copy of this and attached papers be sent to the Board of Education of the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

This paper was adopted by the several Boards of Trustees at their annual meetings, and forwarded to the Board of Education, which now recommends its adoption, together with the appointment of the President of this Board, Judge Jno. A. Buchanan, Geo. E. Penn and H. G. Peters, to attend to all legal aspects of the proposed combination.

J. S. FRENCH, President.

J. R. BROWN, Secretary.

Supplement 1.

PROPOSED CHARTER.

Be it resolved that the charter of Emory and Henry College be amended as follows:

(1) That there be, and is hereby established at Emory in the County of Washington, of the Commonwealth of Virginia, an institution of learning for the instruction of youth in the various branches of science, literature, philosophy, the liberal and useful arts and the ancient and modern languages, to be known as Emory and Henry College; and authority is hereby granted it to accept the property of Martha Washington College situated at Abingdon, Va., in the above mentioned County of Washington, and to operate the same as a co-ordinate Woman's College in the name of Martha Washington College; and to accept the property of Sullins College, situated at Bristol, Va., in the above mentioned County of Washington, and to operate it as a Junior College in the name of Sullins College.

(2) That (here insert the names of the twenty-seven men chosen as trustees) be, and they and their successors are hereby constituted a body corporate under the name and style of "Emory and Henry College," who shall have perpetual succession and a common seal; may sue or be sued, implead or be impleaded; may receive and hold property for the benefit of said institution, in said name receiving and holding all rights, claims, privileges and appurtenances formerly belonging, or in anywise pertaining to "The Trustees of Martha Washington College," and "The Trustees of Sullins College;" and any gift, grant, devise, bequest or donation of property to either said Martha Washington College or Sullins College shall be effective to vest the title to said property in said body corporate, to be held for the benefit of said College.

And the said Trustees may receive donations, bequests and devises, and shall be capable in law to possess, purchase, receive and retain to them and their successors forever, any lands, tenements, rents, goods, chattels, or interest of any kind whatsoever which may have already been given or by them purchased, or may hereafter be given or by them purchased, for the use of said College; to erect, establish and maintain upon any such lands or tenements such schools, academies, or other institutions of learning for the instruction of the youth of the land, as to them may seem desirable, and to dispose of them in any way whatsoever they shall adjudge most useful to the interests and legal purposes of the institution; to give bonds, notes, or other evidences of debt, and to secure the same by deeds of trust upon the property of the corporation; and under their common seal to make and establish, from time to time, such by-laws, rules and ordinances not contrary to the laws and Constitution of this Commonwealth, as shall by them be thought essential to the good order and government of the professors, masters and students of said College, schools, academies or other institutions established by them under the authority of this act.

(3) That the Board of Trustees shall have power, a majority of the whole concurring, to remove any of their own body for a good cause. And whenever any trustee shall absent himself from three successive meetings of the Board of Trustees, having been duly notified of such meeting, without assigning a sufficient reason at the fourth, the said Board may, by entry on their minutes, declare his seat vacant.

(4) That the said Trustees shall annually elect a President, Secretary and Treasurer for each of said Colleges, or such number of these or other officers as they may judge necessary for the purposes of the corporation, who may be members of their own body or not, and the Treasurers shall give bond with approved security payable to Emory and Henry College, conditioned faithfully to discharge the duties of said office and render an account of all moneys, goods and chattels received and expended by them on account of and for the use of said Colleges, and on failure so to do, shall be subject to like proceedings as are prescribed by law in the case of treasurers failing to account for and pay into the treasury of this Commonwealth the public taxes collected by them; such proceedings to be conducted in the name of the corporation aforesaid.

(5) That the number of trustees shall never be less than twenty-seven nor more than forty-five, equally divided among the several institutions composing this corporation, and they shall hold office as follows:

The one-third first named trustees in Section 2 of this charter shall hold office for two years from the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees in the year . . . ; the one-third second named trustees shall hold office for four years from said date; and the one-third third named trustees shall hold office for six years from said date, and until their successors are elected or appointed respectively; and every two years thereafter, at the annual meeting, one-third of the trustees shall be elected or appointed in the following manner:

The trustees named by each of these institutions, and their successors forever, shall present twice the number necessary to fill its vacancies, from this number they shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees and confirmed by the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on recommendation of the Board of Education of said Conference, such nomination and confirmation being necessary to an election, to take the places of the trustees whose terms expire. Any member of said Board of Trustees is eligible to re-election indefinitely.

In case said Holston Conference refuses to confirm a nomination the Board of Trustees shall nominate another. In case the Board of Trustees fail to nominate, or the Holston Conference fails or refuses to confirm a nomination on or before the fourth day of the ensuing annual meeting of the said Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, a vacancy exists, which vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the Bishop having in charge the Holston Annual Conference at that time. Any vacancy or vacancies in said Board of Trustees occasioned by death, resignation, removal, or other causes, shall be supplied for the unexpired term in the same manner as provided in this section for the election or appointment of a Trustee.

(6) That the said Trustees shall have power to confer in the name of each school in this system literary degrees and distinctions in the same manner as other literary institutions heretofore incorporated by authority of this Commonwealth.

Supplement 2.

To the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Nashville, Tenn.:

Dear Brethren:—We propose a co-ordination of Emory and Henry and Martha Washington Colleges as follows.

- (1) One charter.
- (2) One Board of Trustees.
- (3) Interchange of teachers (with the understanding that each school is to have at least seven giving their entire time to the instruction of college students).
- (4) One administration for the system, in that a General Executive Committee shall have oversight in the interim of the meetings of the Board of Trustees.

Each of these schools will meet all the requirements of the Church for class A classification except those relating to income.

Question:—Assuming that either of the two co-ordinated colleges meet the requirements regarding income demanded of class A institutions for men, will you classify both of them as standard colleges, bracketing them as co-ordinate?

J. S. FRENCH, President Board of Education.

Extract from report of the Classification Committee, which report was adopted by the General Conference Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South:

"Your committee having considered the question of co-ordinating Emory and Henry and Martha Washington Colleges presented by Dr. J. S. French, cordially approves the plan and believes that a proper relating of these two institutions, financially and educationally, would give to both a class A classification.

Extract from report of the Committee on Publications, Plans and Policies:

"In view of the proposed plan of the co-ordination of colleges within the bounds of the Holston Conference, and the securing of new charters, your committee believes no action necessary, as it is sure that all the rights of the Church will be fully protected."

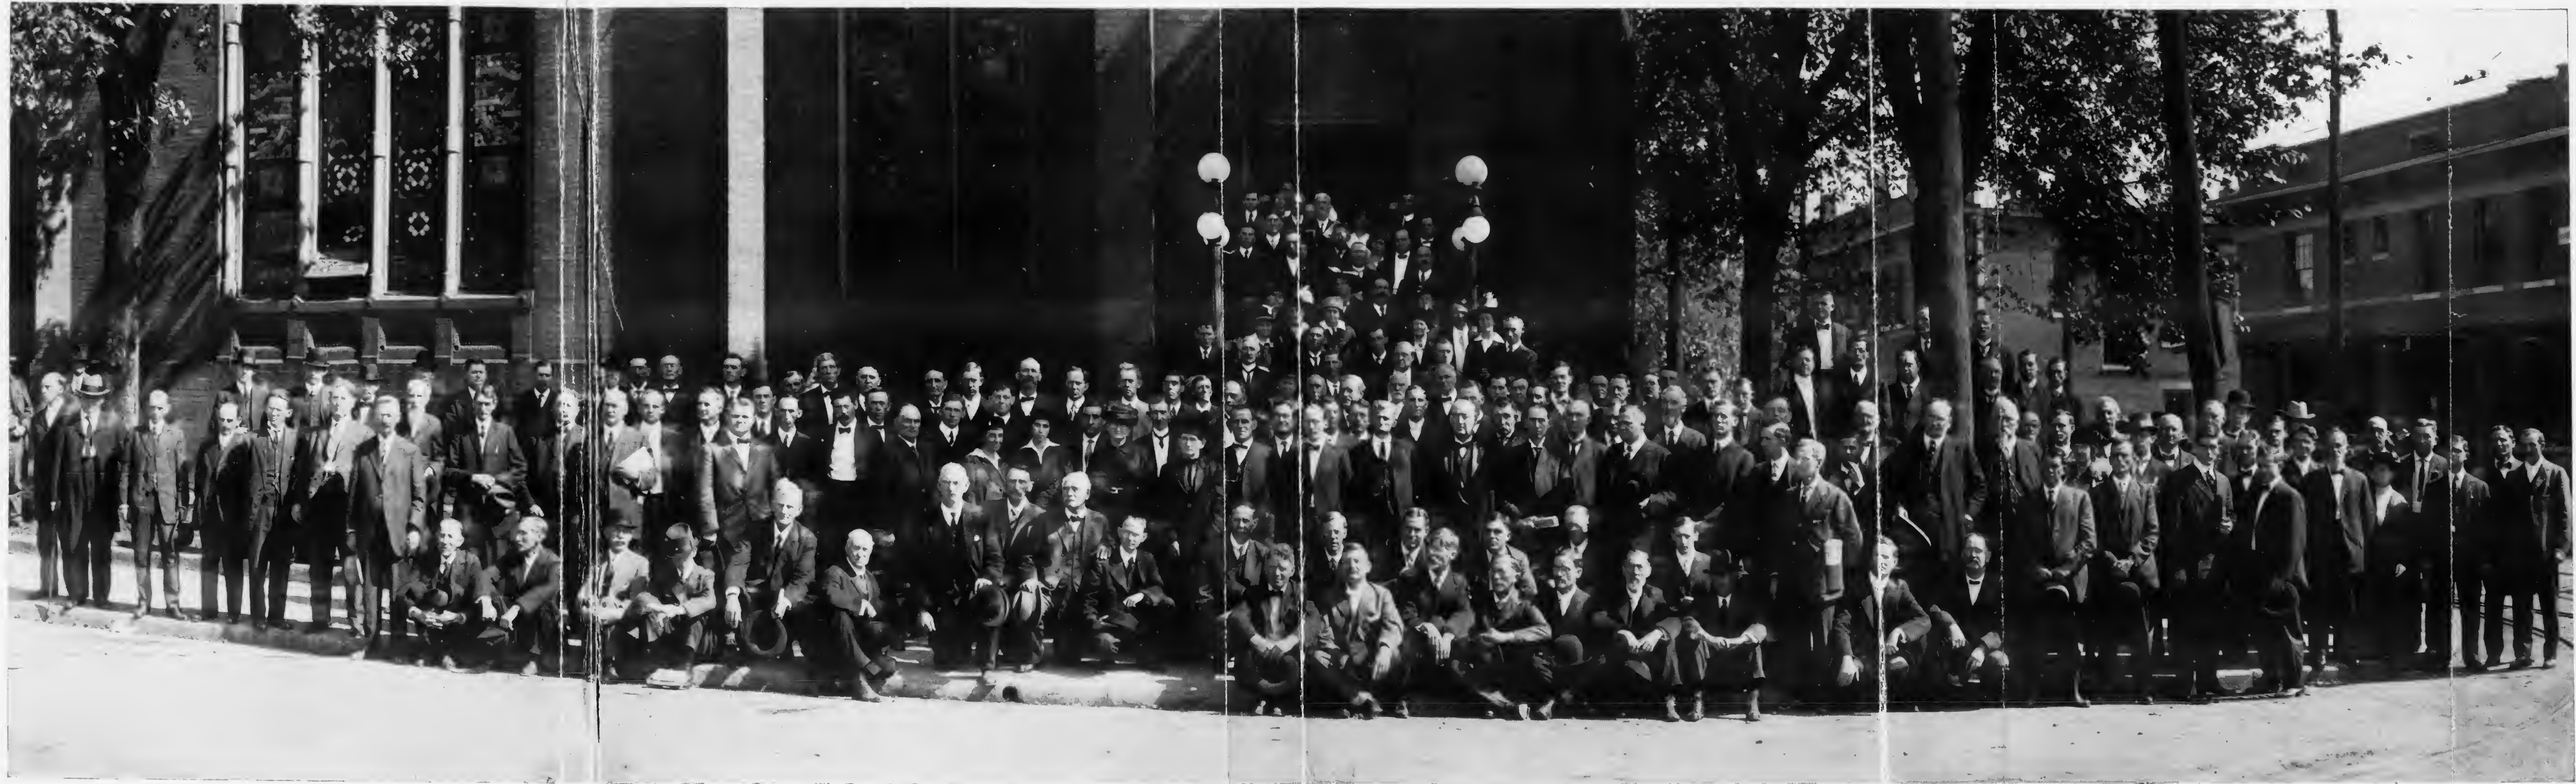

Bishop Atkins moved to amend by inserting the words: "That the Corresponding Secretary of this Board be authorized to co-operate with the authorities of the said colleges with a view to making due provision in the new charter for the ownership and control by the Church of the new institutions created by the proposed union of the said colleges." This amendment was adopted, and the report as thus amended was then adopted.

The General Education Board,
New York City.

Gentlemen:—The Boards of Trust of Emory and Henry, Martha Washington and Sullins Colleges, properties of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, are anxious to follow out the suggestion of the Board of Education of the Holston Conference of the said Church and form these schools into a system under one charter and one Board of Trust. Among other questions the following has been raised:

THE CONFERENCE

INTENTIONAL SECOND EXPOSURE

THE CONFERENCE

Suppose one of these schools which itself is free of debt should apply to you for a gift; another of the institutions included in the corporation owes some money, however; not more than its property would bring at sale, but some amount; would you refuse to make a gift to the school applying on the ground that the corporation, of which it is a part, was in debt, or would you deal with only the one institution, taking no account of the others in the system? In other words, would the indebtedness of the corporation as indicated above, be considered by you ground in itself for refusing a gift to an institution of that corporation which itself was free of debt?

We are making strenuous efforts to improve these properties, and cannot expect for several years to come that all three should be out of debt at the same time. We are thoroughly convinced that our salvation lies in some kind of a combination by which these schools shall become co-operative rather than competitive and shall be properly classified to that end. But we can ill afford to do anything that will cut us off from financial help at the hands of such organization as is yours at the very time that we are putting forth every effort to improve our equipment, and I am therefore thus laying the matter frankly before you and asking the question above.

We will appreciate very much indeed any information you may give us.

Very truly,

J. S. FRENCH,
President Board of Education.

GENERAL EDUCATION BOARD.
New York.

April 22, 1915.

Dr. J. S. French,
State Street M. E. Church, South,
Bristol, Tenn.

Dear Mr. French:—It will not be possible for us to give categorical answers to the questions which you raise in your letter of April 20th. We should have to deal with any particular application that came before us on its merits. In general, however, it is obvious that co-operation is on every account superior to competition in the management of educational institutions.

Very sincerely yours,

ABRAHAM FLEXNER.

Supplement 4.

April 20, 1915.

Dr. R. E. Blackwell,
Ashland, Va.

My Dear Dr. Blackwell:—Will you kindly tell me whether the entire property owned by the Randolph-Macon system is liable for the debt of any one of the institutions composing the system? For instance: Suppose the Randolph-Macon Academy at Bedford City should become so heavily involved, either through improvements or a deficit on running expenses or in any other manner, as that its property was unable to satisfy that debt, could the creditor make up the deficit by levying upon, and if necessary, selling what part of the Randolph-Macon Woman's College was essential to reimburse him? I do not see how it can be otherwise so long as there is only one corporation, but if you have a way of avoiding it I am anxious to now what it is.

I understand that you can make each school primary, i. e., no debt made by it can be collected from any other property of the corporation until the assets of that particular school are exhausted. But have you discovered any way to go further than that?

One more question: Have you had any experience as to what position the General Education Board, for instance, would take if you applied for a gift of some specific amount on one of your schools which itself was free from debt, but while there was a debt on some other one of the institutions included in the system? Would it refuse it on the ground that the corporation was not free of debt, or would it take into consideration only that one school?

I do not enjoy troubling you, believe me; but am still at work on that combination of which I wrote you in the winter, and these two questions alone are between us and success. If we can get around the trouble involved, all right; if not, we shall simply have to set off benefits against possible, but not probable, damages and decide between them.

I will appreciate very much indeed your help in the matters mentioned.

Fraternally,

J. S. FRENCH.

Ashland, Va., April 23, 1915.

Rev. J. S. French,
Bristol, Tenn.

Dear Sir.—I am sure that all the property owned by our trustees is liable for any debt of the trustees. I see no other way to look at the matter. A debtor can get his money where it is easiest for him to get it. We have had no experience to help you to decide what the General Education Board would do in the case you mention. That matter has never been taken up. They have only considered our College and the Woman's College when we came before them.

I shall always be glad to answer any letters you may write me. I have to get information from others as you are getting it from me and I am only too glad to help you in any way I can.

Yours very sincerely,

R. E. BLACKWELL.

Report No. 4.

The following paper was received and adopted by the Board of Education at its mid-year meeting:

Dear Brethren:—On January 13, 1915, the report of Mr. George C. Peery, who was appointed several years ago to look into the Sullins College title matters, came into our hands. (A copy of this report is herewith attached, marked "Supplement 5.")

According to this report the institution does not now belong to the Church, but can be made to do so by following out certain plans therein set forth.

Now, therefore, we, the Board of Trustees of Sullins College, hereby apply through you, the Board of Education having power of recommendation, to the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for adoption as a Church school, hereby affirming that the suggestions relative to the clearing of the title and amendment of the charter made by Mr. Peery, or such other steps as may be found necessary to secure this end, shall be at once undertaken, and hereby appointing Messrs. Peters and Lavinder, a firm of lawyers of this city, to prosecute this work until an end shall be reached satisfactory to your Conference. You will understand that some time will be necessary to meet these legal requirements and satisfactorily adjust these matters, and we therefore ask until April 1, 1916, at which time if they have not been met, or we find ourselves unable to meet them, the College will automatically drop from the list of Church schools and make no further claim of being Church property.

In making application as above set forth, we do so under the following provisos:

(1) We are to be recognized as a Junior College and remain in that classification at the will of the Conference, subject to the stipulations and laws of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, governing its educational institutions, which are now, or hereafter may be, in force.

(2) The Holston Conference of the said Church is to assume through the corporation to be known as the Board of Trustees of Sullins College (or, if a system of schools is formed, through its corporation of trustees by whatsoever name it may be called) the present indebtedness of the said Sullins College, amounting to approximately $20,000.00.

We have before us a letter from Rev. E. E. Wiley, D. D., your Conference Secretary of Education, asking our purpose in regard to making the institution a Church school. Since the information requested was for your body and we have above announced our intentions in this paper, we suppose it is not necessary to make formal reply to that communication further than is herein contained.

A. D. REYNOLDS, President.

T. F. STALEY, Secretary.
Bristol, Va.-Tenn., March 9, 1915.

Since that time it has become necessary to provide for an additional $10,000.00 possible deficit on running expenses, and the Board of Education now recommends the acceptance of the above proposition with the following additional proviso:

That we agree to the addition of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars to the indebtedness of Sullins College in our acceptance of the tender of the trustees made to the Board of Education in its mid-year meeting, March, 1915, and provided that the debt do not exceed $30,000.00 at the time the institution is turned over to us; and that Judge John A. Buchanan, G. E. Penn and H. G. Peters be appointed a committee to pass upon the title of this property.

J. S. FRENCH, President.

J. R. BROWN, Secretary.

To the Executive Committee of the Board of Education of the Holston Conference:

Gentlemen:—In connection with the report which you have requested me to make as to the title of what is known as "Sullins College" I have before me for consideration the following papers:

(1) Copy of deed from William W. James and wife, Jacob R. Crumley and wife, Jesse H. Pepper and wife, Charles C. Campbell and wife, William Dixon and wife, Jesse A. Buckner and wife, Isaac A. Nickels and wife, David Sullins and wife, and Edward G. F. Hughes and wife, to William W. James, Jacob R. Crumley, Jesse H. Pepper, Charles C. Campbell, William Dixon, Jesse A. Buckner, Isaac A. Nickels, David Sullins, Ed G. F. Hughes, William P. Brewer, John C. King, J. M. Robinson, L. F. Johnson, U. L. York and Wm. B. Williams, Trustees, dated October 27, 1869.

(2) Copy of Act of Virginia Legislature, 1873, incorporating W. W. James, J. H. Pepper, J. A. Buckner, William Dixon, J. R. Crumley, C. C. Campbell, E. G. F. Hughes, D. Sullins, U. L. York, L. F. Johnson, William P. Brewer, John C. King and M. Robinson under the name of "The Trustees of Sullins College."

(3) Copy of deed from W. W. James and others to Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, dated November ..., 1876.

(4) Copy of deed W. W. James and others to the Trustees of Sullins College, a corporation, dated December 7, 1899.

It will be seen from an inspection of deed No. 1 that the property therein conveyed was donated by the grantors for the purposes therein named, the said James, Crumley, Pepper and Campbell contributing two full shares of $147.59 each, and the said Dixon, Buckner, Nickels, Sullins and Hughes contributing each one share amounting in value to $73.80.

By the terms of said deed, it is provided:

"That the said lot of land may be used perpetually for female school purposes together with all improvements that may be now or shall hereafter thereunto belong or appertain, upon the following conditions, towit:

"The said Trustees and their successors in office shall forever control, direct and manage said property and school in all its interests and parts, and that when vacancies do occur in said Board of Trustees, either by death, removal, resignation or otherwise, such vacancies shall be filled by the surviving and remaining Trustees from the male membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the towns of Goodson and Bristol, and it is hereby further agreed that the present Board of Trustees, or their successors in office, shall not have the power legally to sell, transfer or alienate said property or any part thereof from the uses or purposes for which it is hereby donated, unless said property should fail to be used for the purposes for which it is hereby donated for at least five consecutive years, and in that event, the right, title, claims and interest in the said lot of land and all things thereunto then belonging shall revert to the use and benefit of the above mentioned original contributors, or their lawful heirs, in the proportion of their several contributions as hereinbefore set forth."

The effect of this deed was to convey the legal title to the property in question to the trustees therein named and their successors in office subject to the trusts therein set forth.

By the terms of the Act of the Virginia Legislature incorporating the persons therein named under the name of "The Trustees of Sullins College" it is therein provided that said corporation "shall be capable in law to receive, hold and dispose of real and personal property to carry out the purposes of their incorporation, in conformity to a deed of conveyance executed by W. W. James and others on the twenty-seventh day of October, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine."

The intention must have been that the title to Sullins College should pass to the corporation; however, I do not think the Act itself would do this, and I think that a deed to the corporation would be necessary to vest in the corporation the legal title. No deed seems to have been executed prior to the deed of December 7, 1899, which will be hereinafter referred to.

We next come to the deed executed by W. W. James and others to the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, dated November ..., 1876.

All of the original male grantors in the deed of 1869 united in this deed except Isaac A. Nickels and William Dixon. The deed is not signed or acknowledged by Susan Crumley, wife of J. R. Crumley, nor by Dorcas M. Hughes, wife of E. G. F. Hughes. The word "Seal" does not appear after the signatures of Jesse H. Pepper, Mary E. Pepper, D. Sullins, A. R. Sullins, E. G. F. Hughes and J. R. Crumley, but under the authority of Rankin v. Roller, 8 Gratt., 63 and Devlin on Dedds, Vol. 1, Section 254, I think said grantors would be deemed to have adopted and recognized the seal appearing after the signatures of other grantors who signed before they did, and that the writing would be deemed an instrument under seal, and that this defect may be waived.

There are two serious questions, however, as to this deed.

(13) As to whether a conveyance to the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is a valid conveyance?

I think the validity of this deed on this question is open to very serious doubt. See Brooke v. Shacklett, 13 Gratt., page 301.

(2) Is the possibility of a reverter such an interest as can be conveyed in Virginia?

We recently had a case in Wise Circuit Court in which this question arose, but the case was compromised before final trial. In New York it was held in the case of Upington v. Corrigan, 151 N. Y., 143, 37 L. R. A., 794, that such an interest could not be conveyed under the New York Statute. We find no case directly in point in Virginia. However, I am inclined to the opinion that the Virginia Courts will hold that such an interest can be conveyed by deed before the condition becomes operative.

We next come to the deed of December 7, 1899.

The purpose of this deed seems to have been to have all of the original grantors in the deed of 1869 who were living, and the heirs of those who were dead, together with the original trustees and the present trustees of Sullins College to unite in a deed to the trustees of Sullins College, a corporation, for the purpose of vesting in the corporation an unconditional title to the property.

I call attention to the following defects in this deed:

It is not signed or acknowledged by George C. Pile, Trustee; A. S. McNeil, Trustee; J. N. Huntsman, Trustee; A. C. Harkleroad, Trustee; H. C. Wood, Trustee; Samuel McCrary, Trustee; M. H. Butler, Trustee; David Sullins, Trustee, and William B. Williams, Trustee.

It is not acknowledged by W. W. James as trustee nor by W. Dixon or J. A. Buckner as trustees, though they acknowledge the same as individuals.

It is signed by W. P. Brewer and L. F. Johnson as Trustees, but the certificate does not show that they acknowledged the same as trustees. It is not acknowledged by R. M. Crumley individually. It is not acknowledged by George H. Pepper. It is not signed or acknowledged by W. F. Williams. It is not acknowledged by A. D. Reynolds, Trustee; John Slack, Trustee; T. J. Newman, Trustee; Wm. M. Burrow, Trustee; Jos. L. Kelly, Trustee; G. N. Peavler, Trustee, and H. G. Peters, Trustee.

The deed is signed by Mrs. J. M. Roach and Mrs. John W. Nance, but their names do not appear in the body of the deed. As to the two latter, I think the deed would be ineffectual to pass any interest held by them.

While the acknowledging of a deed by the parties signing same is not necessary to the validity of the deed, it is necessary for the proper recordation thereof.

This deed also purports to convey any interest which the trustees of the Main Street Methodist Church, South, in the town of Bristol, has in and to the said property. It does not appear what interest the Main Street M. E. Church had in and to the said property, but if it did have any interest therein, in order for the proper conveyance of same, it would be necessary that a petition be filed in the corporation court of the city of Bristol and a decree be obtained authorizing and directing a conveyance on the part of the Trustees.

Up to the time of the execution of this deed of 1899, it would seem that the title to the property was legally vested in the original trustees in the deed of 1869 and their successors in office.

A question arises as to whether or not the original trustees in the deed of 1869 could convey without express authority from the Court. I am inclined to the opinion, however, that the original grantors could have given to the original trustees the power of conveyance had they desired to do so. Instead of this, however, the original trustees were inhibited from alienating the property. This was a condition imposed upon the trust by the original grantors which they or their heirs could waive or change, and my best judgment is that if all of the original living trustees and their successors in office who are still living including the then trustees of Sullins College unite in the deed of 1899, the title would pass to the corporation known as the Trustees of Sullins College but in endeavoring to get rid of the conditions imposed upon the original trustees and convey the property to the corporation, we encounter an evil circle and meet the same difficulty arising by reason of the provisions in the charter of the corporation. It provides that the property shall be held "in conformity to a deed of conveyance executed by W. W. James and others on the 27th day of October, 1869." Under the charter therefore it seems that the corporation is subject to the same conditions and limitations that were imposed upon the trustees by the original deed of October 27, 1869.

In order to meet the situation as nearly as possible and place the matter in proper condition for the Church, I would suggest the following:

(1) That the defects in the deed of 1899 be remedied in so far as possible, in order to vest the legal title in the corporation.

(2) That an amendment to the charter be obtained providing for the election of trustees in accordance with the plan outlined by you to the Conference.

(This amendment would have to be obtained from the State Corporation Commission after proper resolution adopted by the Board of Trustees).

It might be necessary and would seem highly advisable for the purpose, to obtain the consent of the original donors or their heirs, in writing, to such amendment.

If such consent cannot be obtained the deed of 1899 might be construed as giving such consent thereto, though there is some doubt as to this.

Mr. H. G. Peters, who has had this matter in hand for the trustees, seems to think that such consent can be obtained from the original grantors. If this is done, and the deed of 1899 is perfected, it would seem that this would give to the Church such control over the institution as she desires, and that all parties in interest would be estopped from raising any objection thereto.

The questions involved in this matter have been troublesome and intricate, and the delay that has occurred on my part has been due to doubts arising as to what are proper conclusions in the premises.

Yours very truly,

GEO. C. PEERY.

Wise, Va., January 12, 1915.

Report No. 5.

The following report of a sub-committee appointed by the chair, was adopted by this Board and is hereby made a part of its report to this Conference:

The committee to whom was referred certain papers from the General Education Board beg leave to report as follows:

This Board has called attention repeatedly to the custom which is prevalent in this and other Conferences by which the cause of education sometimes suffers at the hands of the pastors. Emphasis laid on other subjects leads to the fact that at the beginning of each year a rush is made by which these obligations are paid off early and whatever deficit there may be falls on the educational collection. This is manifestly unfair—not to use a stronger word—in view of the fact that it is the rule to take all these collections together. We appeal for simple justice in the matter.

Following the suggestion of the General Secretary we suggest that we make provision for sending the Conference Secretary of Education and our other member of the Board to the Educational Conference to be held during the year.

Realizing the great importance of giving proper religious instruction to the students of our State institutions and in the public schools, we wish to call the attention of our preachers to the opportunity that they have in this field of work. The public school is an especially fruitful field. No wide-awake pastor can afford to neglect this. It is the deliberate conviction of this committee that this Board should start a movement looking to the religious training of children in our public schools. We therefore suggest that J. W. Moore and G. F. Mellen be appointed to bring the matter to the attention of the proper State authorities in Tennessee and that C. C. Weaver and E. E. Wiley be requested to do the same for Virginia and West Virginia. It is further suggested that these committees lay special emphasis on the matter of providing instruction in Bible study in the public schools and of securing credit for the same in the public school course.

We beg to call attention to the fact that the law of the Church now requires all undergraduates to take their examinations before the Conference Examining Committees, but leaves optional the matter of taking the course through the correspondence school. We urge our young brethren to take this correspondence course wherever possible. We deplore the fact that so many young men seem to fail to realize their full duty in bringing up the Conference course of study and we earnestly beg our Presiding Elders to see to it that the young preachers who may be in their districts shall have the importance of the matter repeatedly brought to their attention.

CHAS. C. WEAVER.

Our institutions of learning are, generally speaking, in a very healthy condition and proving a decided factor in the work of the Church within, and even beyond, the bounds of our Conference. Emory and Henry has had the largest opening since the Civil War; Hiwassee has an increased attendance over any previous year of its history, while our three schools for girls, Centenary, Sullins and Martha Washington, continue to improve in the character of work done and the highness of their aims and ideals.

We feel sure that never has there been such an opportunity presented to the colleges of America as is present today. The terrible catastrophe which has overtaken the Old World gives us the chance to dictate the thinking and guide the activities of the future everywhere, and we need to bestir ourselves in the cause of Christian education as never before, and give to our schools, in money, time and thought, as we have not hitherto. Especially in the case of Emory and Henry do we need to complete the endowment of $100,000.00, which we undertook to raise, some $25,000.000 or $30,000.00, of which is still lacking; for without this minimum we must remain in a lower classification and thereby suffer in our competition with other schools and fail of our highest possibilities. We call upon every loyal Methodist, both preacher and layman, to come now at this time of greatest opportunity and responsibility to the active and thorough support of our schools. This year there was a falling off of approximately $200.00 in our collections for the cause of Christian education, and unless we speedily awake to the urgency of the case and the vital necessity for a united and whole-hearted support of them, we shall before long find ourselves without colleges to which we may point with pleasure and pride.

We were delighted to hear the fine reports brought by Drs. A. J. Lamar and Stonewall Anderson regarding Emory University, at Atlanta, Ga., and the Southern Methodist University, at Dallas, Tex., and feel very much pleased that Holston is represented in the former by four young men, who are further preparing themselves for the ministry. We are in heartiest sympathy with these efforts toward enlarging the field of the educational activities of our Church, and pledge our loyalty and support, hoping most earnestly to find ourselves in the not distant future able to demonstrate our interest in some practical way that will increase their material efficiency.

We recognize the fact that our Church schools must demonstrate their right to exist not only by giving as good educational facilities, so far as material equipment, etc., is concerned, as others, but also by building Christian character and laying upon the heart of the student body the imperative duty of a life spent for the benefit of others. With this in mind the following resolution was passed:

"Resolved, That the President of this Board be requested to visit Hiwassee and Emory and Henry Colleges, hold a meeting with the students preparing for the ministry, lay on the heart of the student body the call to the ministry, and in conjunction with the presidents of these institutions do everything possible to deepen the religious life of the student body."

As a matter of interest, and perhaps of some moment, to the Conference, we include a section of the following report made by H. M. Winslow:

"The undersigned, in response to request made of him, begs to report that in the opinion of both Mr. Jourofman and himself, the charter granted to the Conference by act of the legislature of North Carolina many years ago, has lapsed for non-uses, if in fact it was ever attempted to be accepted or used after the grant thereof, had upon request of the committee appointed for that purpose, been had."

E. E. Wiley was elected Conference Secretary of Education.

We recommend the appointment of R. K. Sutherland as Financial Secretary of Emory and Henry College, of O. C. Wright as Principal of the High School at Fries, Va., and of A. S. Thorn as Principal of the Montgomery State Normal.

E. E. Wiley and J. S. French were elected to represent this Board at the Educational Conference to be called by the General Secretary of Education.

The following disbursements were ordered:

For expenses of the Board$ 150.00
 For Hiwassee College 1,000.00

For Emory and Henry College, whatever amount may remain in the hands of the Treasurer after paying the above and settling with the General Board of Education.

The educational statistics are as follows:

BAUDITING COMMITTEE.

Your committee authorized to audit the accounts and books of all custodians of all benevolent and trust funds and the treasurers of the various Boards of the Conference and to act as agents of Holston Conference in effecting the transfer of all benevolent and trust funds and securities of the various Boards to your General Treasurer report the following:

We employed for this work the Audit Company of Tennessee, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and the period over which the audit extended was four years, that is the Conference years 1911, 1912, 1913 and 1914. The audit was as thorough and complete as it was possible to make, and no detail was omitted which it was possible to secure. A full detailed statement of each and every account was submitted to us, with full explanations regarding same. The accounts are as follows:

HOLSTON ANNUAL—Rev. J. A. Burrow, Treasurer.

This account was audited to December 1, 1914. The balance on hand, as shown by the bank books and cancelled vouchers which were submitted, was $478.78. In addition to this the Treasurer had a small savings account of $55.00 and interest, $1.95, making $56.95. These amounts were transferred to the Chattanooga Savings Bank, the total amount being $535.73.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD—Rev. S. S. Boyer, Treasurer.

The bank book was balanced October 20, 1914, and showed a balance on hand in the Chattanooga Savings Bank of $704.32. Cancelled checks and vouchers were submitted and all entries were regular.

BOARD OF EDUCATION—Rev. J. L. Mullens, Treasurer.

The bank book was balanced December 2, 1914, and showed a balance of $112.00 on deposit in the St. Paul National Bank, St. Paul, Va. This amount was transferred to the Chattanooga Savings Bank. Cancelled checks and vouchers were submitted for all disbursements shown and all entries were regular.

TELLER'S ACCOUNT—R. P. Purse, Treasurer.

On December 10, 1914, all accounts and vouchers were checked, all receipts and disbursements were properly shown and covered by vouchers. All accounts were regularly and carefully kept and the balance on hand, amounting to $7,893.43 was transferred to the Chattanooga Savings Bank on December 15, 1914.

CHURCH EXTENSION BOARD—Rev. E. F. Kahle, Treasurer.

In making up details of this account, the Audit Company took data and figures from the books only, as in a letter dated November 30, 1914, the Treasurer states that the bank book, stubs and cancelled checks have been lost in moving. We have no reason to doubt the accuracy of the figures. The accounts are kept in good shape and the closing entries on the books are made under date of November 19, 1914, and show a balance on hand of $2,714.96.

The Treasurer was requested to furnish a statement from the bank, showing the amount on deposit as of this date, but no reply was received to this request. Since November 19, 1914, cancelled vouchers have been furnished us, showing a further disbursement of $1,989.75, leaving a net balance on hand on February 15, 1915, of $725.21.

Two letters from your Committee were addressed to the Treasurer, requesting that the balance on hand be transferred to the Chattanooga Savings Bank. To the first we received no reply, and to the second he writes us under date of April 3, 1915, as follows.

* * * "The Church Extension Board required me to keep the funds until Conference. When the Board is appointed, that Board has entire control of all the matters pertaining to that Board. * * * I am of the opinion that you are not advised as to the workings of our Board.

"Since my last letter to you our Executive Committee met in Wytheville, and said to me 'you can do nothing until the Board directs.' I have paid off some claims since I wrote you and sent vouchers.

"I can't see why money would be any safer in the Chattanooga Savings Bank than in one of our best national banks. And I get the same interest, etc. You see I have other claims to pay and by Conference there may not be as much as $50 in hands."

Since receiving this letter your Committee have made no further effort to have the balance in the hands of this Treasurer transferred to the Chattanooga Savings Bank, as directed by you.

JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE—Rev. J. Wesley Smith, Treasurer.

The funds received by the Treasurer are usually paid over to him at the Conference and deposited in the bank at the place where the Conference is in session. For this reason the account for the period covered has been kept in four different banks.

The last account was kept with the Dominion National Bank, Bristol, Va., and the bank book showed a balance on hand December 11th, 1914, of $1,096.26. Against this there was one check outstanding of $150.00, leaving a net balance of $946.26. Of this amount $50.00 was paid to your Committee to cover the expense of auditing, charged by the Audit Company to this Board, and the balance of $896.26 was transferred to the Chattanooga Savings Bank.

The balances on hand from other Conferences of 1911, 1912 and 1913 were transferred to Chattanooga banks, and owing to the condition in which the books and accounts were kept, and owing to the physical condition and mental condition of the Treasurer, your Committee has been unable to effect final settlement of this account. Every detail has been gone into and all facts and figures are in the hands of the Committee.

The American Trust and Banking Co., of Chattanooga, have been appointed as guardian of Rev. J. Wesley Smith. With them your Committee has diligently endeavored to reach a basis of settlement, but have failed to do so. It was hoped and believed to the last that a settlement or compromise could be arrived at. On September 29th, 1915, we received from them the following letter:

"As Trust Officer of this Company, which is the guardian of John Wesley Smith, under an order of the court declaring him of unsound mind, I have given careful consideration to the claim of your Committee, of which you are Chairman, against Mr. Smith for funds held by him as Treasurer.

"I regret to say that after careful consideration I am unable to offer you anything in the way of a settlement. We are unable to arrive with certainty at the amount which Mr. Smith is liable for.

The amount claimed by you is considerably in excess of his cash resources. There is nothing other than his cash resources available to us with which to settle the claim, even if the amount had been absolutely ascertained.

"Under the circumstances, we would not take the risk of paying a portion of the claim, which is all that his cash resources would enable us to do.

"Regretting that we are forced to this conclusion, I am,

"Very truly yours,

"E. Y. CHAPIN, Vice-President and Trust Officer."

Your Committee believes that it will be necessary to put this account into judgment, and we recommend that such a step be taken as will put this into judgment. The Board of Church Extension have been advised of the condition of this account.

INVESTED FUNDS.

The income from these sources is paid to your Joint Board of Finance.

1. Superannuate Endowment Fund. This fund is handled by the Board of Trustees of the Church, at Nashville, Tenn., Rev. John R. Stewart, Treasurer.

During the four years covering this report the Holston Conference has contributed to this fund $3058.06. During the four years covered by this report your Conference has received from this source $1184.46. The annual income from this has been paid promptly to the Treasurer of the Joint Board.

2. Calvin Fund. This fund is in amount $10,000.00, and was bequeathed to the M. E. Church, South, the income from which is $600.00 annually, and this is prorated among the several Conferences. The amount coming to your Conference has been $24.00 annually, and the receipt of which is properly shown. This fund is an open credit to the Calvin Fund in the hands of the Publishing House.

3. Publishing House Fund. This is a fund received from the profits of the Publishing House when permitted, and is set aside out of its earnings and distributed among the several Conferences.

During the four years covered by this report your Conference has received from this source the sum of $1607.00, the receipt of which is properly shown. We are not informed as to the basis upon which this distribution is made.

4. The Lizzie Watson Fund. The amount of this fund is $5,000.00, and is bequeathed to the Board of Trustees of the M. E. Church, South, with the stipulation that the income from the amount be paid to the Joint Board of Finance of Holston Conference for the wives of broken-down preachers.

This fund was invested April 1st, 1909, by the Board of Trustees at Nashville, Tenn., and is secured to them by a deed of trust on a farm in Pulaski County, Va., the Trustee's name in the trust deed being C. Gilmer. The note bears interest at 6 per cent., paid semi-annually. The interest has been paid up to October 1st, 1914. The time of payment on this note has been extended by mutual consent of all parties concerned until October 1st, 1916.

During the four years covered by this report your Conference has received the sum of $1207.60.

5. Wall Fund. This fund is in amount $5,000, and since September 15th, 1914, has been in the hands of Robert L. Jordan, Trustee, and H. C. Leache and H. L. Trolinger, East Radford, Va.

We are informed that the Trustees of this fund are appointees of the Virginia court, and for this reason we were unable to have the notes in which this fund is invested transferred to the General Treasurer. The fund is invested in nine separate notes, some of which are secured by real estate and some by personal security.

Your committee believes it would be more satisfactory if all the funds were loaned upon real estate security, and also believes that it would be more satisfactory if a Bank or Trust Company could be named to act as Trustee, in accordance with the line of policy adopted by you at your last Annual Conference. No criticism is made or intended of Mr. Jordan—the notes all appear to be good and solvent, and the interest was paid at the time of making the audit up to October 1st, 1914.

The total amount received by you during the last four years from this fund amounts to $998.00.

6. McAnally Fund. This fund was in the hands of E. C. Reeves, Trustee, Johnson City, Tenn., and the amount is $600. We are advised that this amount, together with interest of $36.00, making a total of $636.00, has been recently paid over to your General Treasurer.

7. Chaffin Fund, Ambrister and Brillhart Funds. These funds are in amounts as follows:

Chaffin Fund	$1,500.00
Ambrister and Brillhart Funds.....	781.65
	$2,281.65

The Treasurers of these funds are Rev. L. L. H. Carlock, Bristol, Va., and Rev. G. A. Maiden, Abingdon, Va.

All notes and securities covering these funds were promptly turned over to your General Treasurer and receipts issued by them to the former Treasurers of this fund. These funds appear to have been safely invested and the securities good and ample.

8. Brotherhood of Holston Conference. Rev. E. F. Kahle, Treasurer. The Treasurer states that the Brotherhood is not altogether a Conference matter, but is composed of some members of the Conference and some laymen.

A statement furnished by Bro. Kahle, as of October 14th, 1914, and made to the members in session, shows a balance on hand of $558.27. No transfer has been made of this amount.

9. American Bible Society. Rev. S. V. Morell, Treasurer. A written statement from the Treasurer shows receipts during the four years of $3394.42, and disbursements amounting to the same. No funds on hand.

The amount paid to the Audit Company for the expense of this audit has been $137.50, and this was apportioned among the different Treasurers.

In conclusion we wish to state that the Audit Company has been of material assistance to your Committee since the making of this report and in effecting settlements with the various Treasurers, for which they have made no charge, and we wish to express our appreciation of their action, and also our thanks to all those with whom we have had to deal for furnishing all books, papers and other data used in arriving at our reports, and other information furnished us upon request.

G. L. HARDWICK, Chairman.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

We are very much gratified in being able to report another year of progress in the work of organized Church Extension, both in the work of the General Board and the Conference Board. The last fiscal year of the General Board marked the largest measure of success in its history. This year shows a substantial increase of receipts over last year, or any previous year, for the Conference Board.

Our Conference Loan Fund, the Sullins-Price-Richardson Fund, amounted to $2828.40 at the beginning of our session. To this has been added $1000.00, making the total almost $4000.00.

We heartily endorse the plan of the General Board to observe a Loan Fund Day during the ensuing year, and urgently request the co-operation of the preachers in the matter. We ask that a free-will offering be taken, the amount realized being added to our Conference Loan Fund.

Rev. E. F. Kahle was elected to represent our Board at the meeting of the Conference Board Representatives at Louisville, Ky., in May, 1916.

Donations and loans have been made to fourteen churches and one parsonage, as follows:

Church and Charge.	District.	Donation.	Loan.
Filbert—Gary	Bluefield	$100.00	$.....
Grundy—Grundy	Tazewell	333.00
East Princeton—E. Princeton.	Radford	300.00
Bethel—Athens	Radford	125.00
Speedwell—Cedar Springs.....	Wytheville	150.00
South Bristol—Virginia Ave..	Abingdon	150.00	250.00
Mendota—Benham	Abingdon	125.00
Kingsport—Kingsport	Big Stone Gap ..	500.00	500.00
Clintwood—Clintwood.	Big Stone Gap ..	250.00
Riverview—Cumberland Gap..	Big Stone Gap ..	150.00
White Pine—Morristown Ct...	Morristown	300.00
La Follette—La Follette	Knoxville	150.00
Benton—Carlock	Cleveland	150.00
Dodson Ave—Dodson and Wisdom Memorial	Chattanooga	150.00
Parsonage.
Kimball—Kimball	Bluefield		300.00

Donations to Clintwood and Grundy were made conditional. A conditional donation was made to Cripple Creek Parsonage last year. As these conditions have not been met, the time was extended for another year.

The assessment of the General Board for the ensuing year amounts to $10,260, and is apportioned as follows:

District.	Amount.	District.	Amount.
Bluefield	$ 970.00	Big Stone Gap	$ 920.00
Tazewell	920.00	Morristown	975.00
Radford	970.00	Knoxville	1,435.00
Wytheville	975.00	Cleveland	685.00
Abingdon	975.00	Chattanooga	1,435.00

It is the sense of this Board that churches costing $10,000 or more should not appeal to this Board for donations.

T. C. SCHULER, President.

WALTER HODGE, Secretary.

LAY ACTIVITIES.

At today's meeting of the Laymen, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of a Commission, to consist of the Conference Lay Leader as the Chairman, and of the District Lay Leaders; the duties, powers and authority of said Commission to be to investigate the facts and conditions as outlined in the following questions, and make written report and recommendations to the next Annual Conference:

1. The real need and income per annum, from all sources, of each active preacher in the Holston Conference.
- (2) The real conditions surrounding each of these men and their families, and each of the worn-out preachers, and each widow and fatherless child left by the preachers who have died.
- (3) What financial methods are adopted by the various Churches for paying the preacher, and for paying the current expenses and benevolent assessments.
- (4) What per cent. of each congregation contributes anything annually to the Church;
- (5) what per cent. contributes nothing, either to current expenses or benevolences.
- (6) How many dollars per annum each Church is raising for its own use, and how much it is raising for others and giving to others.
- (7) The bookkeeping methods adopted.
- (8) How and when each Church collects the preacher's salary and the other expenses.
- (9) How some of the preachers live upon what they receive.
- (10) How they are able to keep out of debt.
- (11) Whether the Church members are doing their duty or falling in that duty, in view of the increased cost of living.
- (12) Whether the Churches are adopting any improved, progressive methods, or whether they are still operating as they did twenty years ago.
- (13) Whether there is any room or reason for improvement.
- (14) Can the churches of Holston improve."

As Secretary, I was requested to communicate to the Conference the foregoing action of the Laymen.

W. G. M. THOMAS, Secretary.

E

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Your Board has given as careful attention to League matters as time would allow. We were pleased to have with us our Assistant Secretary, Rev. Marvin Culbreth, of Nashville. Our Board did not organize last year, but has completed its organization at this session by electing the following officers: Rev. J. F. Benton, President; Rev. J. W. Helvey, Vice-President; John F. Goode, Treasurer; A. B. Hunter, Secretary. We are of the deliberate opinion that the League work is not appreciated as it should be. In our thinking and planning for the League we should not forget that its primary purpose is for training Christian workers. Its existence is abundantly justified when we remember how many of our missionary workers and young preachers have been trained in this school of methods.

No League can afford to do without the Era—a good policy is to stick close to the programs it arranges. Its monthly visits to your chapter will bring inspiration that nothing else can bring. Let us see that a club is procured in every Chapter.

Many a Chapter has been brought from death unto life by organizing a Mission Study Class. Write at once to the Educational Secretary of the Mission Board and get instructions.

The Board urges that a rally be held in each Presiding Elder's District at the most suitable place. The rallies may be made a means of extending the League's influence throughout the district.

The Conference Board desires to co-operate in the most cordial way with the Annual Conference of Epworth Leaguers. It will be the pleasure of every preacher and layman composing this body to do everything possible to make the Conference a success. We have bound our work more closely together by electing John F. Goode Treasurer of the Annual Conference. Our Treasurer, also our Leagues, have done remarkably well in their offerings for the Africa special. It should be our purpose to enlist every Chapter in this noble enterprise.

Anniversary Day means to the League what Children's Day means to the Sunday Schools. With a little planning we can make this service a great power in our Churches, besides furnishing means for the extension of our work. The following brethren have been appointed to look after these different interests. District rallies, A. B. Hunter; the Annual League Conference, S. C. Read; the Africa Special, J. W. Helvey; Anniversary Day, J. F. Benton.

A. B. HUNTER, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

"Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy." This divine pronouncement was not intended to be temporary, but has all the authority that Almighty God can convey, and the utterance was given under the most profoundly solemn and impressive circumstances. The Sabbath is God's day and is designed to be perpetual. From the hours of this holy day all that is secular and materialistic was intended to be eliminated. The Sabbath was made for man, for his physical recuperation, for his spiritual improvement and elevation. We would not be true to our Christian view touching this—"Day of all the week the best, emblem of eternal rest," should we fail to note the potent and most regrettable desecration of the Sabbath during these strenuous days upon which we have fallen. Modern inventions, notably the automobile, has operated most deleteriously toward the Sabbath day. Very largely the Sabbath has become a day of diversion, of hilarity; largely we now have only a continental Sabbath. The horrors of the French Revolution were preceded by the official declaration to the effect that the Sabbath was an obsolete institution—that the people of France were no longer under obligation to observe it as a Holy Day. And while we do not apprehend any such calamity, we would sound a note of alarm at this point. We are in great danger, not of official, but of practical surrender of the holy Christian Sabbath.

In view of the foregoing, be it resolved by this Conference:

First—That all our ministers preach earnestly and repeatedly on Sabbath observance.

Second—That our Sunday School teachers are hereby urged to bring this matter faithfully and persistently to the attention of their pupils.

Third—That we urge all parents to give definite and precise instruction regarding the Sabbath to their children.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The American Bible Society is now in its ninety-ninth year of service, a year made memorable by the great European war. But in spite of the effect that this war has had upon religious work and missionary operations in various parts of the world, the work of the society has advanced, and the issues have increased, not only in our own beloved country, but especially in foreign lands. There are many evidences of a "thirsting and hungering" for the Word of God throughout the world.

In its first year (1816) this Society printed and circulated 6,410 Bibles in one language; in its ninety-ninth year it printed and circulated 6,388,717 volumes in 112 languages. The increase this year over last year is 1,145,174 issues. This increase is largely in the foreign field, and is due, no doubt, to the great number of soldiers using Bibles and Testaments. The total issue of the Society in the ninety-ninth year of its existence is 109,916,214 volumes. With this abundant seed sowing of the Word of God, and the fact that men seem more willing to hear God speak through His Word than ever before, the Society approaches its centennial with deep thankfulness to God.

Perhaps there was never a time in the history of the world when men needed to read the Word of God and hear preached the pure gospel more than now. Therefore we urge upon the pastors the importance of the influence of the Bible upon the home life of the people, and urge them to use all the means available to place the Word of God in homes where it is not. Believing that a great many people need information regarding the work of this Society; therefore, be it

Resolved, That every pastor be requested to preach a special sermon on the work of the American Bible Society and the importance of Bible distribution; and that every pastor make a special effort to secure the assessment in full, for the amount collected this year on assessment is only $777.00.

Any literature needed for this purpose will be furnished upon application to the secretary of your Bible Board.

Your board recommends that our assessment for the Bible cause for the coming year be $1,000, and proportioned as follows:

Bluefield District	$ 75.00	Big Stone Gap District.	$100.00
Radford District	100.00	Morristown District . . .	110.00
Tazewell District	80.00	Knoxville District	125.00
Wytheville District.	125.00	Chattanooga District ..	125.00
Abingdon District	110.00	Cleveland District	50.00

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

All the records were before us, except the Chattanooga record. The records, as a whole, are well kept, and show interest and care in the keeping.

The Abingdon District leads in a loose leaf book, the intention, we suppose, was to have the minutes typewritten, but in this they have failed the past year. The Radford, Big Stone Gap, Wytheville, Knoxville and Cleveland District records are all neat and well kept. Morristown, Tazewell and Bluefield records show haste in recording and an abundance of ink, Morristown leading in ink blots.

Believing these records to be of value to the Church, and that they will be of special interest in the future, we recommend that the President of Emory and Henry College be made the permanent custodian of them, so that when a book is filled it shall be the duty of the Presiding Elder and the Secretary of the District Conference to forward the record to the President of Emory and Henry College, whose duty it shall be to keep them for the future use of the Church.

SOCIAL SERVICE.

We recognize the truth that the blessed Gospel which we preach is for the salvation of the bodies, minds and souls of men. Our Saviour, by example, has taught us that we should seek to minister unto humanity in such a way as to bring about the best living conditions, incite the minds of men to the noblest thinking and break unto the hungry souls of humanity the bread of life. No men enjoy such opportunities for serving humanity as do the ministers of the church of God.

Therefore, we should magnify the office of the Christian ministry by interpreting its duties in the light of the needs of humanity. Our hearts are thrilled when we remember that our great church has always stood for the best interests of humanity. Her hands are not tied by the traditions of men, nor her progress retarded by an elaborate ceremonialism. She stands in the midst of the people with outstretched hand to help in every phase of human need.

The minister of the gospel should have a large vision of a wide field of service. The devil is very subtle, and with cunningly devised evils he seeks to hinder the progress of the kingdom of righteousness. There is everywhere, especially among the young, a desire for amusement and recreation. The ministers of the church should seek to guide people into those forms of amusement and recreation which are wholesome and conducive to the health of body, mind and soul. Our attitude in regard to this disposition should not be one of repression, but of sympathetic helpfulness, to find for our young people especially, an outlet for their pent up energy. No phase of the life of the people should escape the minister's notice. His suggestions and his attitude of helpfulness should bring unto all people a more abundant life.

The public schools of the charges where our preachers labor should be frequently visited by them. An effort should be made to impress upon the minds of the children a knowledge of those great moral principles, without which all other knowledge is worthless and a beautiful character impossible.

This is a great reading age. Unfortunately, however, our people are not giving enough attention to those books which are recognized as being most worth while. The reading of many is very superficial. The really great books that are an inspiration to all who read them are being laid aside, and many people use their spare time reading the daily paper, the story magazines and popular novels. Much of the fiction that is being read has a tendency to set up false standards of living and create a disposition on the part of some to break away from the high standards of virtue and rectitude which the reading of good literature creates. We need to tell our people not to be afraid of those books which have been tested and tried, and have found a secure place in the best literature of the world.

Psychologists tell us that the larger per cent of the knowledge which the human mind acquires is gained through the sense of sight. Millions of people are in daily attendance at the moving picture shows watching the pictures which are exhibited. When these pictures are of the right sort, they may increase knowledge, and be a means of recreation. Often, however, these popular play houses exhibit pictures which are positively vicious, degrading to the morals of the young and having a corrupting influence on the character of all who behold them. Our people should everywhere encourage that sentiment which demands the exhibition of those pictures which have a wholesome influence upon the lives of the people. They should discourage that disposition on the part of some which tolerates the showing of those pictures which are harmful.

We render humanity a very great service by taking our stand against all forms of gambling, whether that gambling be in the finely furnished parlors of the well-to-do, on the race track, or in the gambling dens. Every place where gambling is done is a place from whence evil influences come. The way of the gamblers quickly leads to utter ruin. There is something about gambling which causes the gambler to lose self-respect. In most places all forms of gambling is contrary to law, and the law should be strictly enforced.

One of the greatest evils that ever cursed humanity is the liquor traffic. We do not believe that any government has a right to license any of its citizens to injure the peace, happiness and prosperity of others. We believe that every man who uses his privilege of franchise to establish a legalized liquor traffic is guilty of being an accomplice in the crime of making drunkards. With gratitude unto Almighty God, we are able to record that the cause of prohibition in Tennessee has passed from the fighting and turmoil of the question period and has become a settled public policy. The problem remaining is the perfection of the prohibition laws and the vigorous enforcement of the same—particularly in the larger cities. Paul declares that public officers are "ministers of God," and their ministry ought to be clean, vigorous and incorruptible. It is the duty of every Christian citizen to insist upon the faithful enforcement of law by the regularly constituted authorities and to render intelligent, sympathetic and vigorous co-operation to all faithful officials in the performance of their duties. We heartily indorse the non-partisan policy of the Tennessee Anti-Saloon League as set forth by the superintendent, and we heartily subscribe to the doctrine that the laws ought to be enforced by officials elected, paid and sworn to this purpose. We pledge our prayers and diligent co-operation to the superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, Rev. J. D. McAlister, in his purpose to make prohibition, state and national, the dominant moral issue.

In order that the Tennessee Anti-Saloon League may be more thoroughly identified with the churches, it is desired that the various denominational bodies select a certain number of the trustees of the Anti-Saloon League, and in conformity with this plan this committee suggests that Rev. G. R. Stuart and Rev. J. W. Moore be elected by the league as two of its trustees.

We greatly rejoice in the recent legislative victory in Virginia, which guarantees the enactment of laws by the next legislature which will amply secure to the prohibition cause the fruits of the great victory won in the prohibition battle last year. The prohibition victory won in Virginia in 1914 was not without cost. At the conclusion of that magnificent campaign the Virginia Anti-Saloon League had a debt of $25,000, $12,500 of which is yet unpaid. This debt was an absolute necessity to the winning of the campaign and was incurred in the faith that the prohibition forces of Virginia would gladly pay the same. While we are proud that that part of Holston Conference which is in Virginia gave one-third of the prohibition majority in the mighty battle, we regret that she has not borne her proportionate share of the debt. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to faithful co-operation with the Virginia Anti-Saloon League in its plans to liquidate this indebtedness.

The sentiment for nation-wide prohibition grows at a most remarkable rate. Nineteen prohibition commonwealths with others speedily to follow clearly indicate that the day of our redemption draweth nigh. We hereby declare that Holston Conference is in the nation-wide fight against the liquor traffic until it is completely exterminated. We pledge ourselves to stand with the National Anti-Saloon League in its plans and program looking to this end.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your committee beg to express the belief that each member of the Conference will remember, how, one year ago, from the altars of our annual conference session, we went forth to our respective charges, having assumed anew our evangelistic vows. We recall, also, how, having reached our charges, we were stirred by the Holy Spirit to endeavor to fulfill those vows. We recall how God blessed His word and work as preached and done by us. We were not surprised, therefore, when at our open session, as our presiding elders made their reports, to be thrilled by the vision of Pentecostal scene after Pentecostal scene, some of them very wonderful.

Resulting from this movement has come a marked increase, even over last year, in number of conversions and accessions. As to statistical details, this committee begs to refer the Conference to the statistical reports, but begs also to suggest in connection with general statement above made, that any disparity between numbers of conversions and accessions may be interpreted, in part, at least, in the light of the fact that Methodism's parish is the world, and one of her chief glories has always been to decorate the membership rolls of other churches than our own.

In connection with the uplift in spiritual vision, and declining spiritual passion, has come a quickening in all departments of the Church's work. There has come enhanced appreciation alike of evangelism, pulpit and personal, and of the pastoral office.

There has come a clearer recognition of the spiritual in man, and a growing adjustment of the home and the church institutions of the Sunday school and league to the education of the child toward completeness in Christ. It is being felt more and more that the educational institutions of the church are highly responsible as to the destiny of the nation. The Bible being their curriculum and the practice of religion their gymnasium.

With this uplift of vision the laymen are moving in glorious progress toward the realization of Christ's ideal of stewardship. Our congregations under their leadership are employing progressive financial methods with signal success. Our colleges and universities are demonstrating as never before a recognition of their sense of responsibility for the religious atmosphere about them. And well they may, for America and our own beloved south seems destined to be a big part of educational center of the world.

The Church is recognizing more and more that society is here for Christian service; that business is stewardship, and that the state must and may, with the uplifts of civilization, more and more apply Christ's law of love in its legislation. We rejoice in the inspiring example given by our southwest Virginia territory a year ago to the cause of national prohibition. Brethren, the development of all normal earth life depends upon the development of the spiritual life of man in the Church of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Resolved:

1. We thank God for his blessing of the year just passed.
2. We renew our emphatic avowal of appreciation of the spiritual in the church.
3. As God's Spirit leads us, we will keep ourselves on the altars of the true, the spiritual Mount Zion.

JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

We are gratified to note that on account of increased assessment as ordered by the Conference at its last session, we are enabled to make better provision for our superannuates than ever before in our history. The Conference assessment was increased from $9,500 to $14,000. We have collected and received in interest from outstanding obligations over $12,000. A brighter day has dawned for those who are engaged in the work of the Christian ministry and have given themselves to this, the noblest of human pursuits.

We have eighty-five names on our roll: Mrs. W. M. Dyer, Mrs. A. J. Frazier, Mrs. E. E. Wiley, Mrs. R. A. Giddens, Mrs. M. L. Clendennen, Mrs. J. P. Dickey, R. N. Price, J. M. Wolfe, J. C. Mannis, W. SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Your Sunday School Board rejoices in the evidence shown of an increase in the Sunday School throughout our entire Church. The report of the Sunday School editor shows that there has been a net gain for the current year in our uniform publication of 23,111, while in the graded course there was a net gain of 27,289, showing that at last the graded course is coming into its own, which fact we herald as the coming of a better day.

We wish to call attention to the fact that the Missionary Messenger is to be discontinued as a special publication, and that the monthly Missionary program, together with all other matter carried by the Messenger, will be found in the Workers' Counsel, which has been enlarged and the price fixed at twenty-five cents a year to clubs of five, thirty-five cents a year to individual subscribers. We consider the Workers' Counsel indispensable to a progressive Sunday School.

The reports made by pastors to this Conference have not been available to this Board up to the time of making this report, but information gathered through the District Organization would indicate a very gratifying gain for the year, both in number of schools and number enrolled for the year.

Other things are indicated which are not so gratifying:

First—The Home Department and Cradle Roll are not receiving the attention they should.

Second—The number of Sunday Schools is not equal to the number of churches reported.

Third—Not half the number of organized classes reported to the Annual Conference last year are enrolled with the central office in Nashville.

Fourth—The number of teacher-training classes are embarrassingly few.

Fifth—That a small per cent. of our schools are taking the fifth Sunday collection for our Greeneville Orphanage; that Children's Day has not been observed by the majority of our schools; and, in some cases, the money collected on that day has not reached the treasurer of the Sunday School Board; that most of the money raised by the Sundays Schools and reported in the statistical tables as raised for missions has been swallowed up on the regular assessments without anything on the books of the treasurer of the Mission Board to show that the money was raised by the Sunday schools, thereby ignoring paragraph 264 of our Discipline, and taking away from the General Sunday School Board its means of support.

To overcome these things your Board has appointed superintendents for the different departments of its work, fixing responsibility and dividing the work. We bespeak for these superintendents the co-operation of our pastors and presiding elders, that all our schools may be brought up to the standard of efficiency given us by the General Sunday School Board.

We have adopted the following goals for the year:

First—A Children's Day in every school.

Second—Missionary committee, instruction and offering in every school.

Third—A Home Department and Cradle Roll in every school.

Fourth—A Wesley Class in every charge.

Fifth—A "teacher-training class" and "workers' council" in every charge.

Sixth—Three thousand dollars for the Greeneville Orphanage.

Seventh—Missionary institutes in every district.

We urge our Sunday Schools to remit missionary offerings monthly, and that all money raised in Sunday Schools shall be so marked. We respectfully request the Mission Board to prepare for their treasurer blanks in conformity with paragraph No. 264 of Discipline.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

We are glad to note the continued prosperity of our publishing house and its branches. In spite of disturbed business conditions prevailing throughout our country, the usual volume of business has been maintained. We appreciate and commend the enterprise of the agents of our publishing interest in sending a well selected stock of high grade and useful books to the seat of our Conference in the care of an experienced, efficient representative.

The general organ of our Church—The Nashville Christian Advocate—under its present editorial management, easily takes rank along with the first and most influential religious journals of the country. Its circulation should be largely increased.

The Methodist Review, under the able management of that princely Christian gentleman and scholar, Dr. Grass Alexander, whose untimely death we, together with the entire Church, deeply lament, is recognized as being one of the first periodicals of its class published by any of the churches, either at home or abroad.

We most heartily commend the Sunday School, Epworth League and Missionary literature of our church.

We are pleased to note that Holston History, in five volumes, has had a good sale, and has promise of a still larger circulation among our people.

We would respectfully urge the brethren to work for a much larger circulation of this splendid journal of Methodist conquest. Certainly it should be in the libraries of all our homes.

We rejoice in the continued efficiency of our Conference organ, the Midland Methodist, and commend most heartily the wise and efficient editorial work of Dr. J. A. Burrow. We are glad to learn that the circulation of the paper keeps step with the growth of Southern Methodism within our borders. Being the regularly and duly constituted local organ of our Church, we recognize it as being indispensable to the largest development and greatest efficiency of our membership. We therefore deem it imperative that every pastor make an earnest and sustained effort to place it in every Methodist family in our Holston territory. We recommend the appointment of Revs. E. E. Wiley, N. M. Watson and Hon. Creed F. Bates as Holston representatives of the Midland Joint Commission.

LAY LEADER.

After my election as Conference Lay Leader, I commenced at once to get in touch with the District Leaders by correspondence and urged them to take the work up with their Church and charge leaders to the end that we might improve conditions. A few were prompt to reply, but as a whole the District Leaders seemed either indifferent or absorbed so much in other matters that they did not put the vim in it that I had hoped. I find also that they had the same experience and difficulty with their Church and Charge Leaders. I suppose, up to that time, we could expect little else, as all seemed to be at sea as to just how the work should be done, but with one year behind us I feel that we are much better prepared for the work, and look forward for more interest and greater activity during this year. We have had a very satisfactory meeting of our District Leaders at this Conference, and I feel that they will return to their respective homes with more determination to do something than they did last year. We are, therefore, hoping for better things along all lines.

If the Laymen's Missionary Movement is anything at all, it is a part of the Church and Conference, and yet, I am sorry to say, that many preachers and some presiding elders treat it as an orphan. This ought not to be. Each pastro should work with, advise, assist and co-operate with his Leaders, and each presiding elder should do his best to help his District Leader. If we can bring this condition about, we ought not to have any complaints in Holston.

One other thing: It seems that the Conference itself treats the movement with indifference. My belief is that the Conference ought to give full assistance to the movement, and if they will do this they will find a better asset than they ever dreamed of. We should not have to beg for an hour for our anniversary and finally get it at a time when every committee in the conference is out at work on other matters; but we ought to have an hour or more of the best time you have—some morning during the Conference, when not only the laymen could be present but when all the preachers could be on hand, and take part in the meeting and discussions. They must be our advisors, not only in our Conference, but at home. And if they do not get in touch with the movement they cannot take the interest. I am hoping another year will bring more satisfactory and better results.

B. F. FRITTS, Conference Lay Leader.

EXHIBIT.

In accordance with the plan of organization I beg to make my report as follows:

Question No. 1.—There are 393 charges in which the Laymen's Missionary Movement is effective.

Question No. 2.—There are seventeen charges in which a systematic campaign for missionary education has been conducted.

Question No. 3.—An “every member” canvass has been made in 171 charges.

Question No. 4.—The Duplex envelope system or some other device is being used in thirty charges.

Question No. 5.—Thirty-nine charges are carrying a missionary special.

Question No. 6.—The Laymen’s Missionary Movement is co-operating with the boards, chiefly by an “every member” canvass.

Question No. 7.—The laymen are assisting in evangelism by organizing committees on evangelism, but reports show very little work done along this line.

Question No. 8.—The prohibition movement is being assisted by the laymen in giving time and money to the Anti-Saloon League, and seem to be much interested.

Question No. 9.—A determined effort by the laymen to advance and improve conditions along all lines in the Conference.

B. F. FRITTS, Conference Lay Leader.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Report No. 1.

At the close of the first year of the new quadrennium we face a world-wide situation fraught with difficulties and filled with unparalleled opportunities. God is honoring us with a great responsibility, and offering us the joy that accompanies heroic effort. It is with peculiar pleasure at this glad hour of privilege and opportunity that we extend the hand of fellowship to a more generally awakened and invigorating laymen’s movement—always full of potentialities, but never standing so clearly in the morning light of a great era of usefulness as now. The board, always sensitive to the opportunities and demands of the Conference, have, under God, recast their policy so as to continue to meet these. The Italian mission is no more, and our work for the “foreigner in our midst” is in a state of suspension. Your board feels that, for the present at least, it must deny itself the advantage of a paid secretary in the field. We wish to record our appreciation of the unselfish and eminently successful labors of Rev. J. W. Perry, D. D., in this field.

Your board finds it possible to establish thirteen new missions this year, making a total of seventy-six—the largest number ever carried by the Conference at one time. The board is appropriating the largest per cent. of its total income to pastoral charges this year than for any of the past twelve years, and more than was ever appropriated to pastoral charges in the history of the Conference. The past year has been one of most gratifying success. On the whole, the report shows the best work ever done on Conference mission charges in our bounds. A surprisingly large per cent. of the total number of conversions and accessions reported to this Conference were from our mission charges. The success of our work has been largely due to the efficient leadership and the brotherly co-operation of our presiding elders.

We rejoice at the progress of the revival in our midst, and urge a most careful study of, and co-operation with, the plan of evangelism in Report No. 1 from this board—for a year-long and Conference-wide revival. Pastoral evangelism, the use of our Conference and connectional evangelists to the exclusion of others, cannot be too strongly insisted upon.

We join the general board in calling your attention to the "Week of Prayer," January 2 to 9, 1916, and urge that it be generally observed throughout the Conference.

The general board for the sanest and most urgent reasons is making appeals to individuals throughout the Church for an "emergency fund" of $50,000. We hope that many within our bounds will respond to this cause.

We wish to record our appreciation of the visit and inspiring message of Rev. T. S. McCallie, D. D., pastor of Central Presbyterian Church, Chattanooga, on the "Every Member" canvass and "Duplex Envelope."

We nominate for election the following committee on evangelism: Rev. J. M. Carter, Rev. P. L. Cobb, Rev. S. B. Vaught.

We recommend for appointment by the Bishop: Rev. J. A. Baylor, secretary of evangelism; Rev. P. L. Cobb, Conference missionary secretary; J. E. Lowry, president Hiawassee College; Rev. C. G. Hounshell, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement.

The committee on evangelism nominate, and we indorse, the nomination of Rev. E. L. Adington, Rev. Bascom Waters and Rev. E. H. Yankee, Conference evangelists.

The assessments from the General Board for Home Missions is $5,472, and for Foreign Missions, $17,100. The assessment for Conference Missions is placed at $16,438. These have been appor- tioned to the districts as follows.

Report No. 2.

After prayerful consideration of all interests and conditions involved we present for your consideration and approval the following recommendations:

1. That we conduct an "Every Member" canvass for contributions to all our "benevolent causes" in every Church within our Conference during the week of December 3-8, 1915, provided that any church may conduct such a campaign earlier, and that circuits shall have the privilege of using the entire month.

2. That each pastor and lay leader report immediately at the close of the week to the Presiding Elder and District Lay Leader for his district, giving the total number of subscribers, and the total amount pledged in each Church. The work will be most successful in that charge which secures subscribers equal in number, or most nearly so, to the membership, and that district will be the banner district which secures the largest number of subscribers in contributions in proportion to the number of members. The Presiding Elders and district leaders will, in turn, report to the Conference Missionary Secretary and Conference Leader, who shall publish the results.

3. That a preliminary campaign of preparation be made. The Conference Secretary providing for an ample illumination of the principals, plans and aims of the movement in the Conference organ. The Missionary Secretary and Conference Lay Leaders are further requested to prepare a short address to all charge and Church leaders, giving some details of the plans to be distributed by the district leaders in each district.

4. That an institute be held in each district in the Conference for pastors and lay leaders, and that we urge the district lay leaders to co-operate with the Presiding Elders in making arrangements for the meetings and in securing the attendance of the laymen. After conference with the Presiding Elders we announce the following dates for the institutes:

Wytheville, Dec. 9-10.	Big Stone Gap, Nov. 25-26.
Radford, Dec. 11-12.	Morristown, Nov. 30-Dec. 1.
Bluefield, Nov. 16-17.	Knoxville, Dec. 2-3.
Tazewell, Dec. 18-19.	Cleveland, Dec. 7-8.
Abingdon, Nov. 23-24.	Chattanooga, Dec. 9-10.

5. That all our people be urged to consider the advantages of using the Duplex envelopes, the simplest and most convenient device yet invented to aid our people in making their offerings.

6. That every pastor preach at least one sermon on Missions, or Christian Stewardship, before the canvass begins, and that the whole Church be urged to pray for the work and the workers.

7. That we look upon the assessments as the base line, and not the goal—the minimum and not the maximum.

8. That we recommend "Regular Specials" for the rapidly increasing number of individuals, groups and churches who are not willing to limit their giving to the assessments.

9. That in fixing our goal, wherever it is possible we leave the offerings of the Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues to be a surplus. That we recommend to the Sunday Schools, the China special for Sunday Schools, and to Epworth Leagues the African and Cuban specials for Epworth Leagues.

P

CONFERENCE EVANGELISM.

Holston Conference was a pioneer in organized evangelism. The results under God have attracted the attention of the entire Church. The Divine blessing has made the year now closing a remarkable one. The great Bluefield meetings were especially notable, and sent a wave of enthusiasm and revival fervor far and wide. Your secretary has been hindered from doing this year all that he has formerly done, by heavy work, and especially almost constant absence from home and facilities for correspondence. But evangelism had a large place in all the District Institutes of the Conference, and presiding elders and pastors gave earnest and hearty co-operation to all plans for its furtherance.

I present herewith a tabulated statement of results in the several districts of the Conference.

DISTRICTS	Converted or Reclaimed	By Vows or Baptism	By Certificate	Net Gain	No. of Meetings Held	Weeks Spent in Revivals	Family Altars on Charge
Bluefield	4,363	1,997	533	2,530
Radford	3,469	1,485	392	1,877
Tazewell	700	488	343	831
Wythville	1,673	600	351	951
Abingdon	2,033	471	317	788
Big Stone Gap.....	1,156	767	258	1,025
Morristown	1,300	445	238	683
Knoxville	1,100	606	383	989
Cleveland	1,983	507	264	771
Chattanooga	1,050	474	336	810
Totals	18,827	7,841	3,415	11,255

One lesson taught us by experience is, that increase of the evangelistic spirit calls for more laborers. Our Conference evangelists have been in demand, and the labors of one has been demanded almost entirely by a single district. Stirring the evangelistic passion among the pastors does not, therefore, crowd the evangelist out, but makes a larger place for him.

Your committee believes that the time has come for a widening and deepening of the work. Some of our people have had a shallow and inadequate conception of evangelism. We have been injured at times by a very superficial type of revival. The work in too many cases has been largely emotional, and culminated in some sort of profession and joining the Church. We must come to see that New Testament evangelism means not only the saving of a soul, but the saving of a life. We must not stop with saving man from the wrath to come, but we must get them saved to the service sorely needed here and now. Our evangelism must be broad enough and deep enough to embrace everything needed for the perfecting of the saints. All-around Christians, thoroughly developed church members, is the need of the hour. We are afflicted with "lop-sided folks." Here and there we find some who pay to an extent, but who do not pray. Again, and far oftener, we find folks who both shout and pray, but have never learned to pay. The terrible war raging in Europe has taught us, with awful directness, a lesson of "efficiency." The time has come for an application of this lesson in the Church. A little study in figures will show how unequally our people are developed, and how totally undeveloped are the majority. Our payments on benevolences are pitifully small. Many preachers' salaries are just above the starvation line. The self-denial, the make-shifts, the heart-burnings that many faithful men and women endure are known only to God and themselves. There is such a thing as starving self-respect, aspiration and high initiative in men, even though the body lives on. And the pittance for benevolence comes so grudgingly and reluctantly that the last weeks before Conference are a night-mare to the preacher. His time and energy are wasted. How can we realize to the full the Divine blessing with such parsimony existing in the Church? "The liberal soul shall be made fat;" "Bring ye all the tithes into my storehouse and prove me now herewith, and see if I will not pour you out a blessing," is the inspired Word. We must in some way crack the Harveyized shell on some Methodist folks. Development of liberality is absolutely essential to lasting revival.

As a real and vital part of our evangelism, therefore, we give hearty indorsement to the plan for lay activities, with its provision for the "Every Member Canvass." Let leading laymen everywhere make themselves felt for larger liberality in the Church. Let Presiding Elders insist upon adequate support for the preachers. Let us give the people faithfully the teaching of the inspired Word as to the use of riches.

With profound gratitude to God for what has been done, your committee would now urge a forward movement. Past blessings have brought us to the threshold of greater responsibilities. The heights attained give widened vision. New fields beckon us on. We have not as yet made any great united effort to enlist the laity in evangelistic effort. The city of St. Louis last year was shaken by a revival promoted under the direction of the pastors on the line of personal evangelism. "One-to-win-one" became a slogan. The Church was set on fire. The plan for lay activities has come to the kingdom for such a time as this. We therefore urge the indorsement of the Conference for a simultaneous "One-to-win-one campaign" in every district, and in every charge, of the Holston conference, to begin with the 1st of January and the close of the every member canvass, and to close with Easter Sunday, 1916. The plan to be that outlined in Evangelism Exemplified, with such modifications and adaptations as may be necessary; to embrace a definite objective of so many thousand persons to be saved and added to the Church; the enlistment of every member of the Church as far as possible in personal effort, and a Conference-wide report of results to that date, immediately following Easter Sunday, the details of the plan to be worked out by the committee and given out in ample time before January 1.

Texas Methodism is planning a state-wide campaign of this kind. Our brethren of the Methodist Episcopal Church have launched a Church-wide campaign of this kind. Why not? This will in no way interfere with any other plan. Revival work need not be put off until January if we are ready for it before. It will not cease after Easter Sunday. We only desire the advantage and inspiration of concentrated effort for that period, with uniform methods and ideas. The "one-to-win-one" plan goes well with the protracted meeting plan—in fact, work best together. Let's try it. We therefore offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That as a Conference we heartily indorse the plan of the committee on evangelism, for a campaign of personal evangelism in Holston Conference, to enlist as far as possible every member of the Church in personal work for souls, the time of the campaign to be from January 1, 1916, to Easter Sunday, the details of the plan to be worked out by the committee and given out in ample time for thorough study by preachers and laymen.

Q

HOLSTON HISTORY.

The historical finances are as follows: Balance due from fifty-seven agents, $338.08; collected during the year, $216.25; paid the Publishing House, $302.00; books in stock, 1199 copies, value at jobbing rates, $1,019.15; total assets, $1,357.23; due to Publishing House, $1,379.94; balance against us, $22.71.

My sales during the year have been inconsiderable, as I did not ask the preachers to subscribe for books at the District Conference, as usual. I have paid to the Publishing House all of my income that I could spare from a mere living, and will continue to do so. I am living as economically as possible. I have been able so far to maintain my credit in Morristown, and the merchants have very cheerfully waited on me for the payment of my accounts till after the sessions of Conference.

The books we have on hand ought to be sold. If the preachers during the coming year would sell on an average half a dozen copies apiece the money arising from these sales would about pay our debt to the Publishing House. I am willing to give my time to carrying out such a scheme by correspondence.

I wrote this history of five volumes, comprising nearly 2500 pages, in twelve years—between 1900 and 1912. It was the work of my old age. I began the first volume at the age of 70 and ended the fifth at the age of 82. If Osler had gotten hold of me with his chloroform this work would never have visited "the pale glimpses of the moon." My labor on these volumes, especially my hurried labor on the fourth and fifth volumes, is responsible for my present state of health. A desire has been expressed by many brethren that I should prepare some personal recollections. I have hesitated to do this for two reasons: My feeble health, and the danger of not being able to avoid the appearance of egotism. Only two things entitle me to an autobiography, my long life and my varied employments and experiences. I have therefore determined to try the experiment. To this end I have been dictating some reminiscences to a stenographer, and if my life is spared will continue this labor during the coming conference year.

Last June it pleased God to take to himself my dear wife, a devoted Christian and a woman of wonderful natural and spiritual goodness. I would not call her back, if I could, to pass again through the sufferings that broke her way to God. It will not and cannot be long till I shall experience the same change. I am endeavoring to set my house in order temporally and spiritually, so that when I enter upon that inevitable journey I may be sure to reach a terminal of which I will not be ashamed. Brethren, pray for me that, for the few days I shall yet tarry here, the Spirit of God may guide me in the path of righteousness, and that a merciful providence may save me and mine from want, embarrassment and contempt.

ERASTUS HARRIS BOGLE.

In Bland county, Virginia, a county noted for the number of Methodist preachers, it has given to Holston Conference, in the year of our Lord 1842, Erastus Harris Bogle was born; and after a most heroic itinerant life of more than forty-five years, at the good old age of 72 years, from Bristol, Tenn., on December 26, 1914, he made his triumphant exit from this world to the better country, leaving his family, his friends and his brethren of Holston Conference the heritage of a long, devoted and well-spent life. He was well born. In his veins flowed some of the best blood of Virginia. The Bogles were honest, upright, staunch men, many of them filling places of responsibility and honor among their fellow-citizens. His mother was a Munsey (if I mistake not), a granddaughter of Rev. Zachariah Munsey, a talented and noted local preacher of that county. Brother Bogle was, therefore, a nephew of Rev. T. K. Munsey, one of the greatest preachers Holston Conference ever produced, and first cousin of Hon. T. J. Munsey, a lawyer of unusual ability, who for a number of terms represented his county in the legislature of Virginia, and also first cousin of the great Dr. William E. Munsey, whose preaching cannot be adequately described. He sprang from preaching stock and was himself a preacher of rare forcefulness and power.

Brother Bogle was never what the world regards as a great and outbreacking sinner. On the contrary, he was always moral and upright in his conduct. I am sorry that I am not informed as to the date, but in his early boyhood he was deeply convinced and convicted of sin and joyously converted to God. How he loved to tell of this clear and joyous experience, which changed the whole current of his life! Blessed is the man who has such an experience!

In 1861, when Virginia and our southland called upon her sons to defend the rights and honor of state and country, Brother Bogle, when only about 18 years old, promptly responded and volunteered in the Forty-Fifth Virginia Infantry of the Confederate army. As a faithful, brave soldier he was always found in his place till at the battle of Cloyd's Farm he received a painful and dangerous wound in his foot. The surgeon probed for the ball, but as he did not find it he supposed that after hitting the bones of the instep it had rebounded and come out. So Brother Bogle was granted a furlough and sent home. His uncle, Hiram Munsey, who was educated at Emory and Henry College, and a teacher all of his life, who lived near Point Pleasant Academy, an excellent school, seeing that his nephew, still on crutches, could not hope to make a living by manual labor, took him to his home and placed him in school. Having good natural ability and being a close student, he made rapid advancement and became quite a scholar, reading Latin and Greek with a good degree of facility. In the meantime his wound would heal, then rise and break again. This continued till one day while dressing it he found the ball, and with a pair of extemporized forceps he extracted it. The wound healed permanently, and he threw away his crutches. That wound gave Brother Bogle his education.

But while he made rapid strides in scholarship, he was making equally rapid advancement in Christian character and usefulness. Heeding a clear and imperative call to preach, he was duly licensed and employed as junior preacher on the East Tazewell Circuit, where he made good. In 1869, at Abingdon, Va., with a class of twelve, he was admitted on trial into Holston Conference. Only three of that class remain. The records show that he was received into full connection and ordained deacon in 1874 and ordained elder in 1876. During his itinerancy he served the following charges:

In 1869, Washington Circuit; in 1870, Pikeville Circuit; in 1871-72, Trenton Circuit and Chickamauga Mission; in 1874, Cleveland Circuit; in 1876-77, Murphy Circuit; in 1878-79, Waynesville Circuit; in 1880, Waynesville Station; in 1881, Haywood Circuit; in 1882-83, Franklin Station; in 1884, Spring City Circuit; in 1885-86, Kingston Circuit; in 1887-89, Loudon Circuit; in 1890, Decatur Circuit; in 1891-92, Charleston Circuit; in 1893, Hamilton Circuit; in 1894-95, Rheatown Circuit; in 1896, Parrottsville and Warrensburg Circuit; in 1897-98, Warrensburg Circuit; in 1899-1900, Jonesboro Circuit; in 1901-2, Fall Branch Circuit; in 1903-4, East Tazewell Circuit; in 1905, Auburn Circuit; in 1906, Floyd Circuit.

If I mistake not, in 1907 his name was placed on the Roll of Honor, where it remained till called from labor to reward.

He was thrice married. First to Miss Moore, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; the second time to Miss Pass, of Spring City, Tenn., and the third time to Miss Stout, of Limestone, Tenn., who was permitted to minister to him in his last hours and who now mourns his loss. He was the father of eight children, all of whom survive him. One of them, Rev. L. P. Bogle, is an honored and useful member of the Western North Carolina Conference.

Brother Bogle was not only quite a scholarly man, but was endowed with rare literary taste. He loved good books and was a constant and thoughtful reader of them, as well as the best productions of magazines and reviews. Many a clue to a fine book or a specially meritorious article have I gotten by contact with him. He was not afflicted with "scribblers' itch," like most Methodist preachers, for he did not write enough. But what he did write was of very high order and worthy of almost any man. I grieve that he did not write more. His best thoughts should survive him. He was a moody man and wrote and preached at his best when in his best moods. When in good physical trim and when helped by the Holy Spirit, he was a great preacher. Any man might be proud of the authorship of his best sermons and papers.

M. P. SWAIM.

Mitchell Patton Swaim was born December 11, 1832, in Buncomb county, North Carolina, and died July 4, 1915, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. A. Cole, in Richmond, Va., aged 82 years, 6 months and 23 days. He was licensed to preach September 10, 1853, and was admitted on trial at Wytheville, Va., October 12, 1853; was ordained deacon by Bishop Paine in October, 1855; was ordained elder by Bishop Early in October, 1857; was married April 26, 1859, to Miss Lou L. Kirkland, of Sequatchie Valley, and was buried at Liberty Hill, near Morristown, on July 6, 1915, the funeral obsequies being conducted by Rev. R. M. Standifer, assisted by Revs. J. W. Perry, W. E. Bailey, M. M. Murrell, R. N. Price and the writer.

Of the conversion of Brother Swaim, Dr. Price writes: "A prayer meeting was held at the residence of Brother Joseph Reynolds on the night of February 8, 1851. The Spirit was powerfully poured out. I felt its melting influence. There were two converts—a colored man and Mitchell Swaim. Eight persons joined the Church, five of whom were Swaims, grandchildren of Enoch Swaim, an aged Christian gentleman in the neighborhood, and thereby hangs a tale. This old brother was too infirm to attend the night meeting, but he sent his son and grandchildren to enjoy the benefits. He afterwards informed me that when his family had left for the meeting he got upon his knees to pray for the conversion of his son, Mitchell. He said he prayed till near 10 o'clock, when he retired to bed, firmly convinced that his prayer would be answered; so that when his family returned at night and informed him that Mitchell was converted he was not surprised. Rev. Mitchell Swaim was a good preacher and a man like his father, of sterling honesty and deep piety."

In his diary, which is before me, Brother Swaim says: "It has been since I joined Holston Conference, fifty-three years ago, as follows: Local, thirteen years; supernumerary, eight years; superannuate, thirteen years; active, nineteen years." During his active itinerant career Brother Swaim served laboriously and acceptably the following charges: Asheville Circuit, Huntsville, Hamilton, Sevierville, Jasper, Pikeville, Trenton, Franklin, Kingston, Rockwood, Madisonville, Sweetwater, Charleston, Webster, Little River (supply), Newport Mission, Paulett and Larno Circuit (Texas Conference).

To Brother Swaim and wife were born two children—Nannie Lord, now Mrs. S. A. Cole, of Richmond, Va., and Charles T. Swaim, of Shelby, N. C.

Now to sum up briefly. M. P. Swaim was a man of decided ability. He read no trash. He read slowly, thoughtfully, and he digested what he read. He was a clear thinker. As a preacher he was solid, painstaking and reliable. Thoughtful people were both entertained and edified, but those who wanted the claptrap and the sensational went from his pulpit deliverances dissatisfied. I knew him well, and often heard him preach. More thoroughly than many of his contemporaries he understood the doctrines of his Church.

Brother Swaim was a loyal Methodist preacher. In all of his ministry he never for a single year's hard work, with a family to support, received more than $430; but he did not "grouch" or complain. He was too modest to be self-assertive, too thoroughly consecrated to concern himself about the loaves and fishes. He went right on, and actually spent his life trying to do good. He let the so-called "almighty dollar" take care of itself.

Best of all, our glorified friend and brother was a quiet, unassuming Christian gentleman. For him I do not claim perfection, but I do declare that if all of our ministers were as clean as was M. P. Swaim there would be no call to ask the annual question, "Are all the preachers blameless in their lives and official administration?" The third name in our chronological roll, Brother Swaim was fully entitled to a place alongside such venerable and highly honored men as David Sullins and R. N. Price.

Brother Swaim lived for those who loved him,
 For those who thought him true,
 For the heavens that smiled above him,
 And the good that he could do.

JOHN. H. PARROTT.

JAMES EDWARD BRUCE.

James Edward Bruce, to whose memory this paper is now affectionately dedicated, was born in Giles (now Bland) county, Virginia, January 18, 1849; and from his home in the same county and state took his exit from this world to his home above June 23, 1915, being a little over 60 years of age. In his veins flowed some of the best blood of Virginia. The Bruces were honest, sturdy, God-fearing people, and both in Church and state were always found on the right side of every question which looked to the betterment of humanity. One of his ancestors, Rev. Joshua Bruce, was one of the four preachers licensed the same day at Nicewanders meeting house, near Mechanicsburg, in Wythe, near Bland county, Virginia, on July 4, 1812; and forty years afterward, by previous arrangement, met in memorial service with the three others, and each of the four preached with great power to the edification of the vast audience which assembled to hear them. Brother Bruce's father, J. Henderson Bruce, was my personal friend and a Christian gentleman of very high order. His mother was Miss Margaret Hoge, of the noted Hoge family of Virginia, and directly connected with Rev. Moses Hoge, D.D., who at one time exercised such marvelous influence in Richmond, Va., and who was perhaps the greatest Presbyterian preacher our Southland has ever produced. She was a sister to Dr. Stafford Hoge, of Wise County, Va., and Rev. Dr. John H. Hoge, of Bland County, Va., both of whom in their day were men of large influence and skill.

Having such blood in his veins and being brought up in a Christian home where the father and mother both lived their religion, it is not strange that he never sowed any "wild oats," which is exactly what should always happen. Just as effect follows cause, in Wise County, Va., at the tender age of twelve years he was happily converted to God, connected himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and gave not only his heart but his whole life to God. He recognized the fact that he was "saved for service."

Brother Bruce did not receive a classic education, but he was well educated. He both spoke and wrote good English—a rather rare accomplishment.

In 1844 he was admitted on trial into Holston Conference, and for fourteen years he was a faithful Methodist preacher, serving charges where there was much work and little pay without complaint till broken health demanded his retirement. He is among the heroes whose names will shine forever in the memorial hall of eternity.

On March 11, 1891, he was happily married to Miss Edna Harris, a woman in whose veins flowed the best blood of Tennessee. She was a daughter of Rev. Dr. Alexander Nelson Harris, at one time a member of Holston Conference and one of the most brilliant men and greatest orators East Tennessee ever produced. She is a sister of Hon. N. E. Harris, now Governor of Georgia. Her mother was a sister of Landon C. Haynes, the famous orator of Tennessee. The children of J. E. Bruce are well born. If they go astray, they will be degenerate progeny of illustrious forebears. He leaves two children—a son and daughter, Haynes and Hazel. May the blessings of their father's God rest upon them.

If I am correctly informed, Brother Bruce served the following charges: Grassy Cove Circuit, 1884-85; Mendota Circuit, 1885-6; Riceville Circuit, 1886-7; Erwin Mission, 1887-88; East Tazewell Circuit, 1888-89; Old Town Circuit, 1889-91; Erwin Mission, 1892-93; Fall Branch Circuit, -897-98. On this circuit rheumatism and other complications stopped his itinerant career and forced him to go on the roll of honor, where he remained (not idly) till called from labor to rest. As often as time, health and opportunity made it possible he was found in the pulpit. The last Sunday before his sudden death he preached at a schoolhouse near his home.

Along all lines of his being Brother Bruce was cast in a large mold. He had a large body, a large brain, and a heart large enough to take in all humanity. His bulk may have caused him to move a little more slowly than smaller men; but he moved constantly, steadily and systematically, and always did good, solid work.

Perhaps he was at his best in the social circle. A close observer and possessed of an acute sense of humor, he was able to charm all with whom he came in contact, both young and old. His laugh was highly contagious. As a preacher he was clear, strong, forceful, sometimes grandly eloquent, and often intensely unctious. He believed the Gospel and preached it without endeavoring to improve it. The Word preached did not return unto him void. It bore a blessed fruitage. In his home he reigned a king; but the scepter of that kingdom was love. As a husband he was thoughtful, tender, urbane. His wife walked by his side a queen. As a father he was the head of his own house, but affectionately thoughtful of his children, making them his companions. The children respected his authority and returned his love in full measure. As a Christian he believed in all that is spiritual supernatural and experimental in our holy Christianity, and he enjoyed "the fullness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ." He improved his talent to the extent of his ability, and I am sure the Master has already said to him: "Well done, good and faithful servant. Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Let us, his brethren whom he loved so much, keep green his memory and emulate his virtues till we meet and perfect our friendship in our Father's house.

GEORGE D. FRENCH.

MILTON LEE CLENDENEN.

Milton Lee Clendenen, a long while an honored member of the Holston Conference, has fallen on asleep. He was the youngest son of John and Mary Clendenen, of Mercer county, Virginia, (now West Virginia.) His forebears came from the highlands of Scotland, and transmitted to their descendants many of those sturdy traits of character which have lived in song and history. He was born December 28, 1833. His advantages were few, but he made use of those which fitted him for his life work. At the beginning of the Civil war he was the assessor of lands and personal property of Wyoming and Mercer counties. He entered the Confederate service, was in General Wharton's command that saw much of the awful carnage at the beginning of the war. Afterwards his company was with General Early in the Valley of Virginia campaign. He was wounded at Cedar Creek, and captured and taken to Point Lookout, where he remained until the close of the war. He carried a portion of the shrapnel in his shoulder until his death.

He was licensed to preach when but a young man. His first work was in Sequatchie Valley in 1866. The whole Southland was in an unsettled condition, and in Tennessee it required men of sterling worth and courage to handle the delicate situation. He joined the Holston Conference in 1867, in the class of such men as D. H. Carr and R. H. Parker. He was sent to Strawberry Plains Circuit in 1869. On April 5, 1870, he was married to Miss Cordelia Adams, youngest daughter of Rev. David Adams, of Holston Conference. To this union four sons and five daughters were born.

Some of our best charges were served by this good man, and with one voice his people say, "He was a good man and great preacher." The last few years were spent at his home near Wallace, Va., where he had a good farm. He was on the "Honor Roll" of our Conference.

The writer visited him several times in his last illness, and always found him gentle and faithful. He said all preparation was made for the journey to the other shore. On one of the visits I administered to him the Holy Communion, which was to him, his family and a few of his friends a holy hour. He fell on sleep June 30, 1915, and was buried at Bristol on the following day. Nearly fifty years an honored and faithful minister of our blessed Saviour is his epitaph.

E. F. KAHLE.

GEORGE S. WOOD.

George S. Wood was born in Scott county, Virginia, near Hilton's, March 11, 1872. He was converted at Poplar Camp, on the Kingspoint Circuit, in August, 1886, under the ministry of Rev. H. P. Waugh, and was licensed to preach at Herman, August 8, 1891, under Rev. J. S. W. Neel as presiding elder, and Rev. E. W. Walker, of sainted memory, as preacher in charge. He was recommended for admission on trial into the traveling connection by the Quarterly Conference at Salem in August, 1892, with E. W. Walker, preacher in charge, and J. T. Frazier, presiding elder.

He was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference at Wytheville, Va., in October, 1892, and was sent to the Turkey Cove Circuit, where he served one year. The next fall he was sent to Clintwood Mission and remained a year. The following fall he was made junior preacher on the Hawkins Circuit, with E. W. Walker as his senior. In 1895 he located at his own request and served as a "supply" in the Western Virginia Conference.

In 1903 he again entered the Holston Conference and served the following charges: Honaker, one year; Surgoinville, one year; Parrottsville, one year; Fall Branch, two years; New Hope, four years; Hixson, two years; Benham's, six months.

He was married August 3, 1893, to Miss Nannie Bell Hart, daughter of E. M. Hart, of Scott county, Virginia, and sister of Rev. R. E. Hart, deceased. Four children were born to this household, all of whom are living. Brother Wood's health had been failing for a year or more. Last October he was sent from the Hixson Circuit, near Chattanooga, to the Benham Circuit in Virginia, in order that he might be among his own people if his health should altogether break down. And so it proved. After six months of heroic effort to travel a big circuit he gave up the unequal struggle and patiently awaited the end. April 24, 1915, he closed his eyes on the earthly life, finishing his course as courageously as he had lived it. Near Hilton, the place of his birth, in Scott county, Virginia, he was laid away to rest.

Brother Wood was one of those patient, faithful itinerants who served hard charges without complaint, lived frugally, worked loyally, kept out of debt, loved his work, honored his church, and, in every field where he labored, held the confidence of his own people and the esteem of others. He was deeply devoted to his family. He and his faithful wife made sacrifices for the children, and were rejoiced to see them growing up in obedience and commendable rectitude. His faith in God was simple, his character was blameless, his influence was always wholesome. His last letters to the writer of this memoir, evidently written with trembling fingers from a sick bed, breathed a spirit of childlike trust in love divine that was beautiful. Realizing that his work was done, he looked with unruffled gaze at the dark waters to be crossed, and went down after his Master unafraid.

JAMES A. BURROW.

WILLIAM L. SORRELL.

William Leonidas Sorrell, son of David S. and Elizabeth Sorrell, was born near Del Rio, Cocke county, Tennessee, September 16, 1868. Early in his life, when but a boy, he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was received on trial into the Holston Conference at its session in Wytheville, Va., in 1892; was admitted into full connection and ordained deacon at Tazewell, Va., in 1895, and was ordained elder at Bristol in 1897. He died in the Epworth parsonage, Knoxville, Tenn., September 1, 1915, in his forty-seventh year.

He was married to Miss Lillian Wade, of Clinton, Tenn, November 7, 1899. His first appointment was the Crossville Circuit, to which he was assigned in 1892, where he served two years. Afterwards he served the following charges, in the order named, with great faithfulness and efficiency: Robertsville, two years; Rockwood, one year; Ducktown, one year; Aetna, one year; Ooltewah, one year; Evansville, one year; Hillsville, two years; Fountain City, two years; Elk Garden, three years; Jasper, one year; St. Elmo, three years; Wise, one year; Epworth, Knoxville, almost two years.

Viewed from a purely human standpoint, Brother Sorrell's death was untimely, for his life was cut off while he was yet in the strength of his manhood, and in the midst of useful labor, but God seeth not as man seeth, and who shall question either the wisdom or the goodness of the Lord of the harvest?

Brother Sorrell possessed so many good and lovable traits that it is difficult to select those most characteristic. He was a man of great faith. Indeed, his faith was so firmly rooted that, apparently, it did not occur to him to doubt, for to him the promises of God were sure of fulfillment. He did his duty without a murmur or a question and trusted God to guide him, bless his labors and make them fruitful.

He possessed to an eminent degree the grace of humility. There was not a spark of self-glorification in his nature. He did not acclaim his achievements or even claim them as his own, but gave God the glory. In complete self-surrender he humbled himself before the Lord and drew all his strength and inspiration from Him. His attitude of mind is expressed in the lines:

"Never further than Thy cross,
Never higher than Thy feet;
Here earth's precious things seem dross,
Here earth's bitter things grow sweet."

As a preacher, his sermons were well thought out, and his delivery calm, forceful and impressive. He avoided all sensationalism and nerve-straining after effect, and fed his people upon the very heart truths of the Gospel. He was a diligent pastor, regularly visiting his people, praying with them, comforting the sick and sorrowing and endeavoring to bring them all into closer fellowship with God.

His greatness was in his goodness and faithfulness. He never shirked a hard field nor an onerous duty. He put all his strength into his work. He went without a murmur to every charge. He was appointed to serve, and never complained at the sacrifice imposed. He was equally faithful in the discharge of the duties of his holy office. He was a man of prayer and a diligent student of the word of God. It was his habit to arise at 5 or 5:30 o'clock every morning and spend an hour or more in prayer and in reading his Bible. So thoroughly was prayer a part of his life that even in his greatest suffering he prayed and repeated passages from the Scriptures. Moreover, he was a thoughtful reader, and his library was stored with well-selected books dealing with the great themes of the doctrine of Christ.

He was a devoted husband, and thoughtful and kind to an unusual degree. In his last illness, though suffering greatly, his heart went out in tenderest solicitude to the devoted companion and sharer of his joys and sorrows and toils. When told that he had, at most, but a few days to live, he said to her: "I am not afraid to go; I am ready; I am sorry to leave you; it won't be long till you come, too."

He was unselfish to a marked degree. He thought not on his own things, but on the things of others. An opportunity to do a service was never neglected. He was thoroughly consecrated to the work of the ministry. It was ever on his mind. He loved it with a passionate and all-absorbing devotion. In the delirium which accompanied the illness that took him away he talked frequently of his work. A few nights before he died he announced hymn No. 1, "O for a thousand tongues to sing my great Redeemer's praise," tried to sing it, led in prayer, took his text from Matt. 3.3, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, prepare ye the way of the Lord, make His paths straight," and preached a sermon. Thus, to the very last, he followed his loved employ.

In the cemetery at Clinton, Tenn., near the scenes of his youthful ministry and in the presence of numerous friends, we laid his body to rest, there to await the resurrection at the last day and the life of the world to come through our Lord Jesus Christ.

T. J. ESKRIDGE.

MRS. R. N. PRICE.

Anne Edgeworth, daughter of David and Mira Margaret Vance, was born at Lapland, N. C. (now Marshall), April 25, 1835, and died at her home in Morristown, Tenn., June 27, 1915. Her death resulted from a stroke of paralysis, from which she never recovered her speech, though evidently conscious much of the time. The funeral services were conducted from the M. E. Church, South, by the pastor, Rev. R. M. Standifer, assisted by Rev. John H. Parrott, Rev. W. E. Bailey, Dr. J. W. Perry, presiding elder of the Morristown District, and the writer. The floral tributes were numerous and exquisitely beautiful, and the music rendered by personal friends was especially appropriate and impressive.

Sister Price was the mother of ten children—six sons and four daughters, six of whom preceded her to the better land. She was connected in blood with one of the most prominent families in her native state, being the sister of General R. B. Vance and Senator Z. B. Vance, two of the most unique and distinguished citizens of North Carolina. The genius and wit characteristic of both the Vance and Price families were transmitted through her to the children, who have become writers and teachers—the first-born being Rev. D. Vance Price, our gifted preacher and editor.

At 13 years of age she was converted at an old-fashioned camp meeting, held at Reem's Creek Campground, N. C., and joined the Methodist Church, of which she was a devout member at the time of her death. When a girl of 20 she married Rev. R. N. Price, who at the time of their marriage was a young Methodist circuit rider. This step was taken with faith, consecration and full purpose to be the life companion and help-meet of an itinerant minister, which in those days she well knew meant sacrifice. Whatever sacrifice was involved in this step in after years she met with a genuine heroism. The work of her husband as a circuit rider, station preacher, school teacher, college professor, journalist and author, fixed their home successively in village, town and city, and wherever located, she was his congenial, contented and self-adjusted companion, and she never complained of the manner of life under which the varied career of her husband necessarily brought her, but bore the varied and oft-times adverse circumstances with calmness, grace and a good humor that was at once a surprise and a comfort to her husband. The most remarkable trait of her character was manifested in the fact that she did not chafe, murmur nor complain under the most extraordinary succession of inconveniences, losses and difficult adjustments incident to moving fifty times in sixty years. The scars, breaks and misfits of moving were met with the good humored philosophy characteristic of her happy disposition and loyalty to her life-work.

Added to the advantage of being well born and well reared, she had a liberal collegiate education, which she fostered by much and diversified reading. In her old age she read almost incessantly. She carefully read the newspapers, light literature, magazines, church periodicals—especially the Missionary Voice, the Advocates and the Quarterly Review. She kept thoroughly posted on church work at home and in foreign fields and retained an abiding interest in the movements and the locations of the ministry. The Bible was her handbook, her daily companion; she knew its teachings, feasted on its promises and practiced its precepts. She was faithful to the missionary cause and saved up carefully and regularly her money for dues and specialz. She was no ordinary woman as to intellect, manners and godliness. Modest almost to diffidence, she never took prominent places in church work, but in her fidelity, constancy and devotion, had few equals. Of high spirit, she kept her temper under control and never lost her Christian equilibrium. In conversation she wore a genial smile that told of a kind heart, and the characteristic marked by her friends was that she never spoke ill of anyone. If any character was being adversely criticised, she often shielded it by a word of apology or palliation. A next door neighbor during the long illness and death of my father and a boon companion of her son, I was so much in her home and she was so much in our home that I had a son's opportunity to observe and thoroughly know her and her home life. I remember with profound admiration her motherly patience with boyish sports in the house and the forbearing smile that beamed upon her kindly face. How often I marked with boyish surprise her quiet, untiring service to every child and to their various companions as well, and the tender love and devotion of each child to mother. I recall how patiently she adjusted a garment, fastened a stubborn collar, tied a cravat, dressed a stubbed toe, or stilled a mashed finger; how motherly she catered to boyish appetites and willingly added pins, strings or scraps to equipments for childish amusements. I cannot forget her kindly method of discipline that coupled wholesome firmness with love and sympathy. I was deeply impressed with the broad, Christian hospitality that in such a genial way welcomed to her home and table the rich and poor alike; the kindly consideration of the humble, whether a mendicant, washerwoman or visitor. I recall how considerate she was of the sick, the distressed and the needy; how unostentatious and sincere her ministries to them; how devoted she was to the family altar and with what kindly persistence she maintained it under all the confusing circumstances incident to home life with such a large family. I cannot forget how careful she was to prepare all the children for Church and Sabbath School, and with what vigilance she secured their presence at religious services; how she insisted on the proper observance of the Sabbath and the reading of a portion of God's word on that day.

Her neighbors said of her, "She was always so modest, patient and considerate, so ready and willing to help in time of sickness, distress or need, so gentle and retiring, and yet so strong and helpful." The wit and good humor characteristic of her family made her a genial neighbor, and her soft voice, sunny face and modest, unassuming ways drew every neighbor to her in a most unusual love and devotion.

Dear Mother Price, your beautiful character, your kindly words and ministries and your every-day, consistent living were indelibly impressed upon my youthful life, and I sorrow as a child at your departure, and with the members of the family shall rejoice to meet you in the Better Land.

GEORGE R. STUART.

MRS. WILLIAM E. MUNSEY.

Mrs. Virginia A. Munsey died at her home in Washington, D. C., April 8, at 8.30 p.m., aged 75 years. Dr. Forest J. Prettyman, chaplain of the United States senate, her pastor, conducted an impressive ceremony in the home on the evening of April 9, and the body was taken to Jonesboro, Tenn., where a service was held in the Methodist Church by her brother-in-law, Rev. J. E. Naff, assisted by the pastor, Rev. M. A. Stephenson and Rev. John Crawford, of the Presbyterian Church, and was laid to rest beside the remains of her distinguished husband. The attendants from Washington, D. C., were her children, Miss Elberta Munsey, her only daughter; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Munsey, Mr. C. C. Munsey, Mr. R. R. Munsey, and her sister, Mrs. J. E. Naff, with her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Bowman. Most beautiful oral offerings from the children, friends, Mount Pleasant Methodist Church, of Washington, departments of the pension offices, the Ebbett House, together with a lovely design from Munsey Memorial Church and friends in Johnson City, and the massive pot plants and decorations of relatives and friends of Jonesboro adorned the services and covered the graves.

Mrs. Munsey was one of the distinguished women of her generation. Her vitality, vivacity and personality were striking and remarkable. For forty-five years, in feeble health, she fought one physical trouble after another with heroism and precaution. She has lived for years an indoor ascetic as to hygiene. In this respect was a law unto herself, violating apparently every rule of health, outliving all expectations, reviving again and again from the very verge of the borderland of life. A widow at 38, with four intrepid sons and a little daughter all dependent, and with a broken constitution from an accident, Mrs. Munsey has reared her children in credit and lived to see the boys established in life.

She is the last to depart, except the four now living of the twenty-three sons and daughters of the three Blair brothers, who from the forties to the seventies of the past century merchandised in Jonesboro, owned and operated the stage lines from Virginia to Knoxville, Tenn., and to Asheville and Salem, N. C., owned in partnership with others and operated the Embreville Iron Works, and were stockholders and constructionists of the E. T., Va. & Ga. Ry.

The second of these brothers, William K. Blair, Esq., was the father of Mrs. Munsey. Prior to the above dates he practiced law in Blountville, and during the oldest brother's sixteen consecutive years in congress was commissioner of pensions for upper East Tennessee. During her girlhood, therefore, Miss Blair enjoyed every advantage afforded. She grew up in the cultured and classic atmosphere of old Jonesboro, under New England teachers, and after the training and strict discipline of that day; and the attractive girl developed into a woman of superior ethical standards, taste for wholesome literature and for the domestic fine arts.

Her mother, Miss Mary Elder Yearsley, a lady of culture and fortune, was reared in Burke's Garden, Va., and died in Jonesboro when Miss Virginia was grown to womanhood. Even then her superior judgment and devotedness rendered her competent to take the place of a mother as well as a worthy sister to her brothers, Dr. David Yearsley Blair, who died in Florida, John Kelsey, who died in Jonesboro; William White, who died in Missouri, and Kennedy Powell Blair, of Spring City, Tenn. Especially was she a mother to her then little sister, Irene.

Could Naomi and Ruth have been so true and devoted to each other as were these sisters? They looked so much alike as to be at times taken one for the other. They thought, felt and acted—fitted into each other's life—the same always. They were interested in books, needlework, painting, music, entertainments, people, alike. Neither was happier than when in the other's companionship. The full tide of their cheer and interest in each other and their devotion was uninterrupted and never grew cold. It was charming to see them together at their employments in the home life, their thrones, like two little children in perfect accord, devising, consulting, designing, executing; or in the midst of their children and friends, calling each other forth and lighting the circles with exhaustless funds of merriment and convivial spirits.

Always and everywhere the life of Mrs. Munsey has been full of lavish devotion, both on her part and the part of her family and friends. The crowning reflex attachment of her true spirit and pure life was the profound love for, and pride in, her of her great-hearted husband, Dr. William E. Munsey. If he was one of the rarest geniuses of this continent, love was the chief element of his greatness; and this was not more manifest to those who knew him in the dizzy heights he scaled and the profound depths he fathomed, expending his life's blood to show forth his love of truth and his Redeemer, than in the simple, childlike, unselfish love of his friends, his home and his first and only love. Mrs. Munsey was intensely practical and positive. How much she tempered the fiery imagination and restrained the lavish liberality of her husband will not be known; and the poetic all but adoration and the philosophic ideals of life for the training of her children he gave to her she has followed as she did the Commandments.

Mrs. Munsey's home life has been all but ideal in the companionship and mutual confidence she has had with her children. Few mothers have been loved and honored more than she. Twenty-two years ago Mr. E. E. Munsey worked his way into a good position in Washington City. The princely boy in Egypt sent for his doting old father and his people. Leading specialists in the White Capital attended the mother's wants and others of the family. Highland sections of the city and summer outings averted the intensity of city heat and contagions. Everything mother or sister could wish he gladly provided. He lived a bachelor for years that they might not feel a sense of want. Little less can be said of the other sons as opportunity afforded. The daughter's constant thought and supreme care was for her feeble mother. She has fondly given her life to her mother. The mother's health first of everything has been the children's untiring solicitude and her will and pleasure their chief delight.

She was appreciated and honored by those outside the family circle. Only two years ago a party ran with her over to Alexandria to meet and hear a unique Holston evangelist. So soon as it was known that Mrs. Munsey was in the Church parishioners of her husband's congregation back in the sixties crowded about the chancel and the greeting was an ovation. From the time she was taken a bride to Chattanooga she has been a center of attraction to her husband's congregations in Baltimore, Bristol, Abingdon, Alexandria, New Orleans, always in Jonesboro, and of recent years in Washington, D. C. To her matronly womanhood there were added a high spirit of generous good humor, rare tact and taste, judicious poise and counsel which brought her the honor of men, the favor of women, and those who sought good cheer and consultation in perplexity and sorrow.

Her interest in the Church grew on and on with the years. In the founding of St. Paul Methodist Church, in East Washington, her home was near by, as also in the Mt. Pleasant Mission Church establishment in Northeast Washington. With Rev. Peter Jeffrees, D. D., deceased, the methodical Englishman, Mrs. Munsey and her children were identified in the founding of both these Churches. He consulted her judgment and wishes as he did that of his officers and building committees. He and his peoples called her "Mother Munsey, our patron saint." Dr. Prettyman said of her, "Truly she was a saint," and "I have never seen just so beautiful a family life as this."

How much poorer seems earth and how much nearer and richer is heaven for her leave taking! Liberated from the frail, weary little tenement of affliction and privation, and "clothed upon with her house which is from heaven," how exalted and wide is her companionship! What heights of rapture must her bright spirit know! Repeatedly in her last hours she said to her sister in the characteristic sedate repose of her calm confidence, "I am ready." O to be for such a slumber meet, and for such a waking!

JOHN E. NAFF.

MRS. T. J. ESKRIDGE.

Mary Sevier Dillworth, the beloved wife of Rev. T. J. Eskridge, presiding elder of the Knoxville District, died at the home of her parents, O. F. and Mary E. Dillworth, Jonesboro, Tenn., June 10, 1915. The suddenness of the call came as a great shock to the family and friends. Less than a week before her death Sister Eskridge went from her home at Fountain City to see her invalid mother at Jonesboro, expecting to minister to her in what was thought to be the few remaining days of her mother's life. She reached Jonesboro on Thursday evening, and on Saturday night was taken seriously ill. Medical aid was summoned, and her husband sent for. In three days she was manifestly beyond human help, and on Thursday night, June 10, peacefully breathed her last. She was such an active, busy, useful woman, always doing something, that it seems unnatural to think that her work is done. For twenty-two years the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher, she won her way to all hearts. If perchance the pulpit had failed to teach, the parsonage would have been as a "city set on a hill." A well-ordered house, an ideal home, sending out so constantly such a pure, sweet, quiet Christian influence that all must needs be blessed who came within the circle. To her three children—Mary Louise, Thomas J. and Dillworth L.—Sister Eskridge was indeed an ideal mother. They must needs carry with them through life a rich endowment of character and the memory of a mother faithful through life to every trust.

Sister Eskridge was never a strong woman physically, but her beautiful devotion to her invalid mother gave her little time or inclination to think of her own ills. For two or three years past her mother's falling strength was a source of constant anxiety to her. For more than a year she had her in her own home at Fountain City and cared for her; and this it was, in part at least, that used up the strength that might have gone to greater length of days. But we must measure life in deeds, not days. "He lives most who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best." Measured by this standard, Sister Eskridge's life was well rounded and complete.

The story of her life on its religious side is a most natural one. She was converted in childhood and joined the Methodist Church at Jonesboro at the age of 12. She grew to young womanhood as an integral part of the active Church life of the community. Sunday School and prayer meeting and Sunday service was the religious atmosphere she breathed. At the age of 20 she was married to a Methodist itinerant preacher; and going with him from place to place, she never once lowered the standard of the best traditions of a Methodist preacher's wife. The parsonage was her pulpit, and the distinct note of gentle, Christlike living was as clear and positive there as that of her husband in his chosen place in the pulpit. Simple in her tastes and modest to a fault, she had no desire to walk the "garish way"; but she loved her Lord and, like Him, loved humanity, and freely gave her life in service. Wherever she went the Church felt the influence of a quiet life, "full of good works and alms deeds which she did."

Her funeral service from the church at Jonesboro, on the forty-second anniversary of her birth, was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. John C. Orr, president of Sullins College; Rev. J. Stewart French, of Bristol, and Revs. George R. Stuart, C. W. Kelly, W. L. Sorrell, G. K. Patty and S. L. Browning, of Knoxville. We laid the body to rest beneath a mound of flowers on the top of the hill overlooking the home, the church and the scenes of her childhood. "Blessed be the dead who die in the Lord."

N. M. WATSON.

MRS. W. P. DOANE.

Jennie Amelia Keller was born October 18, 1845, near Abingdon, Va. She was converted in early childhood and joined Clear Branch Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of which her two aunts were founders. She was united in marriage to Rev. William Penn Doane May 24, 1864. To this union ten children were born—Sallie, Nathan, Robert, Tennie, Georgia, Will, John, Charles, Daisy and Mattie. Tennie, John and Charles went before mother to the land beyond. She departed this life Easter morning, April 4, 1915, from the farm home, between Knoxville and Clinton, Tenn. She was a model Christian woman. When yet young she gave herself to the then trying life of the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher, making many long moves over the country in wagons. She was not known to complain then nor to the close of life did there come complaining words from her lips. Wherever she has resided her friends have been numbered by those who knew her. Always willing and ready to help others, she was never happier than when giving aid to the needy. In the places where she lived the people have enjoyed some of whatever good thing she possessed. She did not lose interest in the Conference and Church to which she had given so much of her life. She took and read the Church papers and Holston Annual and kept up with the movements of her Church. She knew where the preachers were stationed and what they were doing. Quiet and unassuming in manner, strong in character, safe in judgment, not easily excited over anything, she remained calm until the last. When she knew that the end of the earthly journey was near, she called the children and talked to them, telling them how she wanted them to live and what she desired them to do, expressing her desire to see some of her special friends, among these being her pastor, who so many times had spent pleasant hours in the home. The Methodist preacher had no better friend than Sister Doane, who had given the best of her life to the building of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Virginia, Tennessee and North Carolina. She came to the end with love for all people and interest in all good. She will be greatly missed. She has gone to join the loved ones of early childhood, also her husband and three children. The legacy of a good and pure life has been left to those who remain.

She gave the sweetness of a true Christian life to this world. May the children follow her as she followed Christ! The funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Revs. Wills, of Methodist Episcopal Church; K. C. Atkins, of Lincoln Park, Knoxville, and J. R. Brown, of Jefferson City, Tenn., after which we laid her to rest by her husband and children at Friends Station, under a mound of beautiful flowers. Certainly her tired form rests well.

K. W. COX.

MRS. AYERS KINCAID.

Sarah Elizabeth Paris was born at Cog Hill, McMinn County, Tennessee, February 17, 1855; professed conversion while yet a little girl, and joined the church in early life. She married Rev. Ayers Kincaid October 16, 1878. She was the mother of three children, two sons, Ernest and Chandler, and one daughter, Nelle. She departed this life October 8, 1915. She is survived by her husband and three children.

Mrs. Kincaid was an excellent type of Christian womanhood. She was a faithful and devoted wife, a careful and sympathetic mother, a compassionate friend of all in need, a happy participant in all the joys and successes of her companions—an ideal Christian woman. As the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher only praise can be given her. She bore the vicissitudes of the itinerancy with cheerfulness and faith in God, making the parsonage home a center of Christian influence and power. After Bro. Kincaid's superannuation they made their home in Cleveland, Tenn., until February, 1915, after which time they lived in Chattanooga, where the end of her earthly pilgrimage came.

Mrs. Kincaid's memory is full of sweetness and light. In Cleveland, where her body was buried, she left many devoted friends. She had been in bad health for three years before the end came. She knew for some time beforehand that she must go, and met the inevitable without fear, spoke freely during the last days of her illness of her departure, and gave directions regarding her funeral and burial. She died as she had lived, with implicit faith in God. Few, if any, surpassed her in the graces of Christian character. The grace of her comely character cannot be described. Those who knew her will always be comforted and strengthened by her memory.

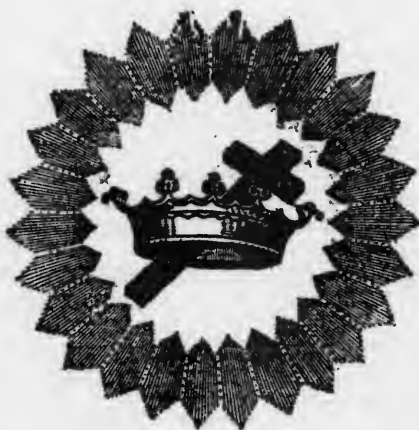

G. C. RECTOR.

MRS. JAMES A. DAVIS.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Davis, the subject of this memoir, was born on the farm two miles south of Emory and Henry College in Washington County, Va., on February 12, 1826; and died at the old home in Emory on October 21, 1914. She was united in marriage to Prof. James A. Davis, who was an honored member of the faculty of Emory and Henry College for a number of years, on May 27, 1852, and with whom she lived happily till his death, which occurred on June 30, 1898. There were born to them seven children, two of whom survive—Mrs. M. H. Honaker, of Abingdon, Va., and Mrs. E. M. Ball, of Emory, Va. Mrs. Davis was converted in her early life at the old Lebanon Camp Ground, on Eleven-Mile Creek, in Washington County, Va., and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in which she lived a faithful and consistent follower of Christ till the day of her "release." The Bible was her constant companion and guide during the whole of her Christian life. She never allowed any other reading matter to come first in her daily readings. There was never a day when she was physically able that she did not read a portion of the Book. She possessed a great faith and a patient and gentle spirit. Hers was the reserved and simple life. She was always unassuming and modest, yet strong and decided on all questions of right. Her departure from earth to the better land was peaceful and triumphant. The funeral services were quiet and simple. They were conducted at the home in Emory by the writer, who was her pastor for four years, assisted by Rev. J. T. Frazier and Bishop R. G. Waterhouse. Her body rests peacefully beside that of her husband in the beautiful Emory Cemetery to await the resurrection day.

CARE OF CONFERENCE FUNDS.

Chattanooga, Tenn., October 27, 1915.

To the Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, consisting of Messrs. G. L. Hardwick, F. A. Carter, J. A. Burrow, R. P. Purse and W. G. M. Thomas, appointed to make a contract for the handling of the Conference Funds:

Gentlemen:

The Chattanooga Savings Bank proposes to handle the funds of the Holston Conference, performing all the duties agreed upon last year as outlined on pages seventy-two and seventy-three of the 1914 Annual, which is made a part of this proposal; and also agrees to handle the funds of the Greeneville Orphanage and Brotherhood, and if desired, of the Women's Missionary Society.

Our terms of this proposal are as follows:

1. That we shall receive compensation in the amount of $300.00 per annum payable at the end of each Conference year.
2. That we are to be repaid the expense incurred for necessary stamps, stationery and printing used in administering the trust and office.
3. That, during the sessions of the Annual Conference, we will furnish free of charge a competent employee, or employees, who will go to the Annual Conference and remain there through the session—we to be repaid the cost of railway fare and hotel bills.
4. That on all funds in regular Savings account we will pay four per cent (4%) interest per annum compounded semi-annually; and on Certificates of Deposit issued for either six (6) months or twelve (12) months, four per cent (4%) interest to be paid.
5. That, on checking account, we will pay three per cent (3%) interest per annum on minimum monthly balances, to be credited monthly; it being our intention on the first day of each month to transfer, so far as possible the amounts on hand to the Savings Account, keeping on hand in the checking account merely enough to cover the current payments of that month.
6. That in addition to the regular interest, any profit to us, arising from a charge, a fee, a commission, or otherwise, on any investment or loan of the funds made by us, such profit shall belong, and go to the Board whose funds were invested or loaned. All such profits we agree to donate for the benefit of the Church, save only that, from the same, we will be repaid any actual expenses incurred by us growing out of making and caring for the loan or investment.

7. That, without any expense to you, the Conference, or the interested Trustees or Boards, we are to keep all necessary books, records, etc., and carry on such correspondence, make such reports, and do all such other things as shall comply fully with said agreement.
8. That there shall be no charge made by our Bank for collection of checks coming in from other Counties or States.
9. That this contract shall remain in force for a term of three years from the date of the 1915 Annual Conference, and until after the accounts shall have been closed, and the statistical reports prepared and furnished as agreed.
10. That your Commission shall be the guiding, advisory, and controlling authority with respect to the formality and the administration by us of this office and trust, unless otherwise instructed by the constituted authorities of the Church.

Your acceptance of this proposal shall constitute a contract between us; and this communication and your acceptance will be executed in duplicate.

CHATTANOOGA SAVINGS BANK.

On behalf of the Holston Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, we, the Commission appointed by that body, with full power to act, accept the above contract.
